Cope, 2019-04-01 With issue twenty four of 1650 1850 this annual enters its second quarter century with a new publisher a new look a new editorial board and a new commitment to intellectual and artistic exploration As the diversely inventive essays in this first issue from the Bucknell University Press demonstrate the energy and open mindedness that made 1650 1850 a success continue to intensify This first Bucknell issue includes a special feature that explores the use of sacred space in what was once incautiously called the age of reason A suite of book reviews renews the 1650 1850 legacy of full length and unbridled evaluation of the best in contemporary Enlightenment scholarship These lively and informative reviews celebrate the many years that book review editor Baerbel Czennia has served 1650 1850 and also make for an able handoff to Samara Anne Cahill of Nanyang Technological University who will edit the book review section beginning with our next volume Most important of all this issue serves as an invitation to scholars to offer their most creative and thoughtful work for consideration for publication in 1650 1850 About the annual journal 1650 1850 1650 1850 publishes essays and reviews from and about a wide range of academic disciplines literature both in English and other languages philosophy art history history religion and science Interdisciplinary in scope and approach 1650 1850 emphasizes aesthetic manifestations and applications of ideas and encourages studies that move between the arts and the sciences between the hard and the humane disciplines The editors encourage proposals for special features that bring together five to seven essays on focused themes within its historical range from the Interregnum to the end of the first generation of Romantic writers While also being open to more specialized or particular studies that match up with the general themes and goals of the journal 1650 never read before The book is not a chronologically organized literary history nor an encyclopaedia nor a collection of thematically related essays rather it is an attempt to provide a systematic overview of these poetic works and to restore it to

Herbert Carew Suckling Lovelace Milton Crashaw Vaughan and Marvell More general essays describe the political and religious context of the poetry explore its gender politics explain the material circumstances of its production and circulation trace its larger role in the development of genre and tradition and relate it to contemporary rhetorical expectation Overall the Companion provides an indispensable guide to the texts and contexts of early seventeenth century English poetry □□□
