

POEM 3: Poem of Return by Jofre Rocha

1 When I return from the land of exile and silence
2 do not bring me flowers.

3 Bring me rather all the dews,
4 tears of dawns which witnessed dramas.
5 Bring me the immense hunger for love
6 and the plaint of tumid sexes in star-studded night.
7 Bring me the long night of sleeplessness
8 with mothers mourning, their arms bereft of sons.

9 When I return from the land of exile and silence,
10 no, do not bring me flowers ...
11 Bring me only, just this
12 the last wish of heroes fallen at day-break
13 with a wingless stone in hand
14 and a thread of anger snaking from their eyes.

THEMES:

- The poet captures the sentiment of loss: lost opportunity and lost experience.
- A poignant poem about the return from exile which should be celebrated but the poet is rather sad, mournful and inevitably becomes filled with anger. Rocha ends on an angry note due to the lost opportunities and experiences that some young people suffered as a result of colonisation, civil war and exile.

POET - JOFRE ROCHA

The poet's birthname is Roberto Antonio Victor Francisco de Almeida. He used the pseudonym (also known as a 'war name' in Angola), 'Jofre Rocha'. He was born in 1941 in the village of Caxicane, Angola. He is a qualified Social Scientist, Lawyer, short story writer and poet.

Because of political unrest in rural Angola, where guerilla warfare was taking place, his family moved to Luanda, the capital city of Angola. It is here where he became a political activist. As a political activist, he participated in the guerilla warfare for the liberation of his country. Between 1961 and 1968, Jofre Rocha was a political prisoner. It is at this time that he achieved some of his academic qualifications.
