Contemporary Policing John Eterno,Arvind Verma,Aiedeo Mintie Das,Dilip K. Das,2017-03-03 This book addresses six areas of policing performance management professional and academic partnerships preventing and fighting crime and terrorism immigrant and multicultural populations policing the police and cyber security The book contains the most current and ground breaking research across the world of policing with contributors from over 20 countries It is also a suitable reference or textbook in a special topics course It consists of edited versions of the best papers presented at the IPES annual meeting in Budapest Global Perspectives on Crime Prevention and Community Resilience Diana Scharff Peterson,Dilip K.

Das,2017-11-02 Inspired by the dialogue between practitioners and academics of nearly thirty countries this edited volume includes updated articles on global crime prevention initiatives and best practices in building community resilience presented at the International Police Executive Symposium s IPES 25th annual meeting in Sofia Bulgaria in 2014 A new book in the highly regarded IPES Co Publications series Global Perspectives on Crime Prevention and Community Resilience offers strategies for crime and violence prevention and community initiatives for crime reduction while promoting current best practices for police effectiveness safety and professionalism The book includes eighteen chapters from police leaders practitioners and academics around the world in efforts to demonstrate effective strategies for the prevention of crime and innovative techniques in assisting crime victims In an increasingly global reality this text gives voice to valuable members of the international policing community The Development of Transnational Policing John McDaniel,Karlie Stonard,David

Cox,2019-10-10 This book draws together the insights of eminent academics and specialists to present an overview of past and present approaches to transnational policing throughout the Anglophone world It aims to revitalize the study of transnational policing by showing that past and present developments in this field remain poorly understood while also suggesting future avenues of research Containing chapters on police history police accountability gendered hate crime in an increasingly online world counter radicalisation strategies being pursued around the world internet facilitated sex trafficking and changes in organised crime amongst others the authors adopt revisionist orthodox and progressive views in order to challenge our understanding and appreciation of developments in transnational policing All of the chapters in the book use policing models employed within the UK as either their focal point or as a point of comparison so that direct comparisons and contrasts can be examined The Development of Transnational Policing illustrates distinctive and separate aspects of what remains an undoubtedly complex and dynamic field but also forms an overview of developments and the dearth of academic research which surround them in order hopefully to inspire researchers policymakers and practitioners alike Introduction
