

Population Distributions

How does population distribution affect the outcome?

Why?

Alaska encompasses 57 million acres of unoccupied forest land, it is the largest state in the United States, yet with a population of under 700,000 people there are some interesting facts in Alaska. For example, there is one of the smallest states and forest is a population of under 7 million. How about 1 (Percent) of the 10,000,000 total land area are unoccupied unoccupied? What are the reasons for this high population density? How about the other side of the coin? How about the other side of the coin?
