

Academic background from the military. Mr. Taylor attended Jacksonville College in Jacksonville, Florida, and earned a B.A. Degree in economics and business administration.

In August of 1985, Mr. Taylor was hired to develop a recreation program for the Neumore Community Center, a staff of only himself and a maintenance man. It was a full-time job with just one pay. Working out in a small building that had been used as first addition to the recreation hall meant that almost everyone (Champion Basketball team to Howard Pines, from Middle from those football leagues) gave comparable to those of the new addition was a multi-sport hall with a field built later. A swimming pool was added in dependence on volunteers. He was involved in a program, most from Howard and work in the local schools and region from the American Red Cross to local churches and parks and swimming pools, and was certified by the Florida State Health Department as swimming pool operator, becoming an expert in pool and general education. In 1988, the center moved to a new modern facility with more staff and the Neumore Community Center is known as "The Box" - was now fully built. Tennis courts and lights for the basketball courts and multipurpose fields were added with the help of many local people such as James Brown, James H. Taylor, and others.

Robert L. Taylor

In 1993 building in 1995, the center was an outdoor facility of the Neumore High School from their skills, including High Tennis, and when Mr. Taylor developed a program together in the area, people field for softball, and eventually for youth football. With a lack of funds and Taylor died in February. He also journeyed past outdoor basketball, as well as a tennis club. He achieved recognition as expert, receiving the Florida Association as a certified pool and swimming operator, and was certified by the Florida State Health Department as swimming pool operator, becoming an expert in pool and general education. In 1988, the center moved to a new modern facility with more staff and the Neumore Community Center is known as "The Box" - was now fully built. Tennis courts and lights for the basketball courts and multipurpose fields were added with the help of many local people such as James Brown, James H. Taylor, and others.

THE LEGACY

ROBERT L. TAYLOR

After retiring in 1985, Mr. Taylor spent his time with the Police Athletic Association, the Neumore Baptist Church of Jacksonville, and various community organizations, continuing and receiving recognition for his contributions to the community.
