ROMANS

NEW TESTAMENT / PAULINE EPISTLES

INTRODUCTION

The Epistle to the Romans, written by the Apostle Paul, is a key text in the New Testament. It is a letter to the Christians in Rome, written around AD 55-57. The letter is a masterpiece of Pauline theology, presenting a systematic and comprehensive view of the Christian faith. It is a letter of instruction, a letter of encouragement, and a letter of warning. It is a letter that has shaped the Christian faith for centuries.

Key Themes

- Justification by Faith: Paul argues that we are justified by faith alone, not by works. This is a central theme of the letter.
- The Gospel of Grace: Paul emphasizes that the gospel is the good news of God's grace, which is freely given to all who believe.
- The Role of the Law: Paul discusses the relationship between the law and the gospel, arguing that the law is not the basis of our salvation.
- The Church as the Body of Christ: Paul describes the church as the body of Christ, united by the same faith and sacraments.

Key Verses

“For we are justified by faith alone, not by works, for if we were justified by works, we would have no need of grace.” (Romans 3:28)

“The gospel is the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.” (Romans 1:16)
