Confessions of a Small Town Minister David John Ford, 2014-12-15 Ministry in a small town or rural context is challenging. The minister and his or her family live in a fishbowl with every aspect of life under constant scrutiny. In addition, few seminaries or Christian colleges and universities offer courses preparing people for small town ministry. Throw in limited resources and small town politics and you might begin to understand the struggle of Ben Wright, minister in Madison, Montana. In a last ditch effort to find help before he quits ministry altogether, Ben solicits the advice of another minister, the aged and experienced Kain Hoddis. Ben and Kain undertake a journey of discovery as together they explore the joys and struggles of small town ministry.
