 Teacher Created Resources,2002-09 Promoting Reading for Pleasure in the Primary School Michael Lockwood,2008-06-24 Winner of the UKLA Author Award 2009 Lockwood has written a useful supportive book which will help teachers and librarians He describes the background and summarises the research and then proposes thoroughly practical programmes Carousel Michael Lockwood has produced an excellent practical overview and analysis of what works in the primary school to promote reading for pleasure Lockwood s work is grounded and valuable to those who need it most teachers in the classroom working hard to engender a love of reading English Drama Media This book is first class It puts the matter very clearly and succinctly and presents a great deal of evidence to support the argument that pleasure is not a frivolous extra but the very heart and essence of what reading is about It also gives readers plenty of ideas for carrying the principle into the classroom and for justifying it This is an excellent piece of work which I hope will find a place on every staffroom bookshelf Philip Pullman English primary school children are less likely to read for pleasure than their counterparts in many other countries This practical and focused book discusses the background to this situation and looks at how government initiatives have tried to address it Drawing on the author s own research project in order to identify good practice in promoting reading for enjoyment the book presents specific activities which teachers can use to develop their own whole school and classroom practice enabling them to put the fun back into reading Each chapter features case study material and provides examples of planning from schools that have successfully created thriving reading cultures through schemes such as reading assemblies book clubs library loyalty cards school book evenings and quizzes There is also an extensive annotated list of print and internet based resources Topics covered include Becoming a reading for pleasure school Promoting a love of reading in the early years Developing reading enjoyment in the later primary years Getting boys reading Promoting Reading for Pleasure in the Primary School is written for all those involved in education who would like to see as many children as possible develop a love of reading It will be particularly relevant for primary teachers teaching assistants trainee teachers advisers and consultants as well as teacher educators and researchers Teaching English Creatively Teresa Cremin,2015-04-30 What does it mean to teach English creatively to primary school children Teaching English Creatively encourages and enables teachers to adopt a more creative approach to the teaching of English in the primary school Fully updated to reflect the changing UK curricula the second edition of this popular text explores research informed practices and offers new ideas to develop imaginatively engaged readers writers speakers and listeners Underpinned by theory and research and illustrated throughout with examples of children s work it examines the core elements of creative practice and how to explore powerful literary non fiction visual and digital texts creatively Key themes addressed include Developing creativity in and through talk and drama Creatively engaging readers and writers Teaching grammar and comprehension imaginatively and in context Profiling meaning and purpose autonomy collaboration and play Planning reviewing and celebrating literacy learning Ensuring the creative involvement of the teacher Inspiring and accessible Teaching English Creatively puts contemporary and cutting edge practice at the forefront and includes a wealth of innovative ideas to enrich English teaching Written by an experienced author with extensive experience of initial teacher education and English teaching in the primary school it s an invaluable resource for any teacher who wishes to embed creative approaches to teaching in their classroom Teaching Literature to Adolescents Alan B. Howes,1972 Teaching Poetry in the Primary Classroom Gervase Phinn,2009-01-05 When asked by the school inspector what he thought of poetry an eleven year old replied that it s all la dida and daffodils isn t it In his primary school the boy had come across very little poetry apart from nursery rhymes snatches of rhyming verse and a few comic pieces and nonsense poems Poetry to him was something arcane not really related to his own life He had studied no powerful challenging contemplative arresting quirky poems and had written very few poems himself His teacher admitted that he was no English specialist had received few ideas at college on the teaching of poetry and didn t really know where to start As children progress through the primary school they need to be exposed to a rich diet of poetry and encouraged to read perform and write it themselves Providing a varied and stimulating environment is essential if is to flourish In addition children need specific guidance and ideas to start them off writing their own poems This book written by a former teacher and school inspector and popular and widely published children s poet offers an accessible practical and structured programme for the teaching of this sometimes neglected aspect of the English curriculum Writing in Action Paul Mills,1996 Writing in Action provides a step by step practical guide to the process of writing Although the emphasis is on creative writing fiction poetry and drama it also covers autobiographical writing and the writing of reports and essays Because this is a book about process rather than product Writing in Action also looks at the practice of adaptation and editing This book is crammed with practical suggestions and self evaluation exercises as well as invaluable tips on style sentence structure punctuation and vocabulary It is an ideal course text for students and an invaluable guide to self study A World Full of Poems DK,2020-10-06 A gorgeously illustrated introduction to poetry for children featuring poems about everything from science sports and space to friendship family and feelings This thoughtfully crafted anthology is perfect for children new to verse and for young poetry fans seeking out new favorites Explore poetry from a diverse selection of contemporary and historical poets covering a broad range of topics from personal subjects like emotions and family to the wonders of the natural environment Carefully selected works encourage children to see the poetry in everything and to embrace the beauty of their everyday lives Poems are complemented by detailed illustrations timelines and interesting facts about the topics covered ensuring that the poems are not just entertaining but relevant topical and informative Prompts and activities inspire children to create their own poetry and devices like rhyme repetition and alliteration are introduced and explained in a fun and accessible manner Our Teacher's Gone Bananas John Foster,2004 A new collection of poems from John Foster on a range of topics From home and school to friends and family from sport and games to work and study from wordplay and puns to jokes and limericks here is a wonderful range of poems for all to enjoy Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2011-03-04 Designed to introduce prospective English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms this popular textbook explores a variety of innovative approaches that incorporate reading writing drama talk and media production Each chapter is organized around specific questions that English educators often hear in working with preservice teachers The text engages readers in considering the dilemmas and issues facing literature teachers through inquiry based responses to authentic case narratives A Companion Website <http://teachingliterature.pbworks.com> provides resources and enrichment activities inviting teachers to consider important issues in the context of their own current or future classrooms New in the second edition more attention to the use of digital texts from use of online literature to digital storytelling to uses of online discussion and writing tools incorporated throughout new chapter on teaching young adult literature new chapter on teaching reading strategies essential to interpreting literature more references to examples of teaching multicultural literature And the Crowd Goes Wild! Carol-Ann Hoyte, 2012-08 From rock climbing to lacrosse tennis to ping pong and swimming to soccer this unique anthology pays joyous tribute to a wide spectrum of sports Fifty poets representing 10 countries share a mix of thoughtful and humorous perspectives on all aspects of athletics A potpourri of poetry styles pay tribute to an athlete's determination agony and exhilaration celebrate the spirit of spunk and fair play and more Award winning Canadian author/illustrator Kevin Sylvester lends energy to the poems with exuberant pen and ink drawings Here's a book that's sure to be a slam dunk for readers ages 8-12 Visit our website at CrowdGoesWildPoems.com A portion of the royalties from this book will be donated to Right to Play
