

NO BITING

Sometimes I get mad or frustrated

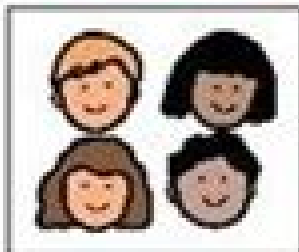

I might try to bite myself. That hurts.

I might try to bite others. That hurts them.

Biting is NOT okay. Biting hurts.

If I don't bite, people will be happy with me

Popular Culture in Taiwan Marc Moskowitz, 2010-10-18 The growing field of popular culture studies in Taiwan can be divided into two distinct academic trends a different analytical framework is used to examine either locally oriented popular culture or transnational pop culture This volume combine these two academic trends firstly by revealing that localized popular culture in Taiwan is in many ways a merging of Chinese Japanese American and indigenous cultures and therefore is a form of hybridity that arose long before the term became popular Secondly the chapters show that the transnational character of Taiwan s pop culture is one of the more important ways that it distinguishes itself from mainland China In other words it is precisely Taiwan s transnational hybrid character that helps to define it as a distinctive local space The contributors explore how traditional Chinese influences modern localized lives in Taiwan localized identity culture and politics as a contested domain with Chinese and traditional Taiwanese identities and Taiwan s localization process as contesting Taiwan s gravitation towards globalized Western culture Including chapters on baseball poetry pop music puppets and Harry Potter Popular Culture in Taiwan is an accessible and stimulating read for those studying the culture and society of Taiwan and China as well as cultural studies more generally

Sensibility and English Song Stephen Banfield, 1985 This highly acclaimed study of English song is the first detailed account of an unusually fruitful interrelationship between English music and English poetry The period covered is known as the English Musical Renaissance and runs from the last years of the nineteenth century to the Second World War Stephen Banfield traces the late flowering of Romantic impulses in solo song during these years surveying it from critical analytical and historical angles He plots the growth of the English stylistic sensibility in song in the decades leading up to the First World War discusses in detail the plateau it reached between the wars particularly in the 1920s and shows how and why it declined as other musical concerns took the field Poets whose verse was set to music most frequently including Housman Hardy de la Mare and Yeats are treated at length as are pre eminent song composers such as Butterworth Finzi Gurney Ireland Quilter Somervell Stanford Vaughan Williams and Warlock In all more than fifty composers are discussed and numerous individual songs In the final section of the book besides providing an extensive bibliography Dr Banfield catalogues over 5 000 songs giving dates of composition and publication and much other detail listed by composer This comprehensive survey will prove an invaluable reference guide to all students of the subject
