The 2nd Second Leonardo DeSanctis, 2001-04-04 Imagine tomorrow that you packed everything you owned in a bag and just disappeared You forgot about your family a job taxes credit card bills traffic and all the other headaches of life You just split Not giving a single thought to where you were going or what you were going to do when you got there You lived completely by impulse Sounds good doesn t it Well what s stopping you That s exactly what Nello Di Latio would say Nello is twenty two likes looking at himself in the mirror watching five movies in a row drinking Rum and Diet Cokes and living his life by a coin toss According to him life on the go gives him countless opportunities in just under a second and It s the 2nd second that really counts That s when you either go for it or you miss out forever Since he finished college the previous year this fast lane lifestyle has worked for him He s backpacked through Europe and the United States on about twenty bucks a day There s never a minute when I pause and reflect because I m always moving he says I bet you can t wait to see where I ll be next Well neither can I The only thing that fascinates Nello more than living his life by impulse is his love of movies He sees his life as one giant movie with a Classic Rock soundtrack and him as the star But a movie has to have a point Nello slowly begins to realize that he can t float forever But where will a guy end up that follows women from bus stops and that allows fortune cookies and traffic signs to dictate his future This novel begins in on a deserted highway in Texas and ends in a hospital bathroom in New York City four days later During this time Nello learns that his traveling days are numbered What makes this novel intriguing is Nello s unusual journal entries that take him no more than two minutes Life s too short to waste time with bullshit details he says Through his passages we get to know him and his Gen X culture and mentality Aside from an occasional flash fantasy and a flashback the story is all present action The
