Policing Traing Intake 2016:

Evidence Based Policing Renée J. Mitchell, Laura Huey, 2018-12-05 Over the past ten years the field of evidence based policing EBP has grown substantially evolving from a novel idea at the fringes of policing to an increasingly core component of contemporary policing research and practice Examining what makes something evidence based and not merely evidence informed this book unifies the voices of police practitioners academics and pracademics It provides real world examples of evidence based police practices and how police research can be created and applied in the field Includes contributions from leading international EBP researchers and practitioners such as Larry Sherman University of Cambridge Lorraine Mazerolle University of Queensland Anthony Braga Northeastern and Craig Bennell Carleton University Handbook of Theory and Practice of Sustainable Development in Higher Education Walter Leal Filho, Mark Mifsud, Chris Shiel, Rudi Pretorius, 2016-12-01 This Handbook approaches sustainable development in higher education from an integrated perspective addressing the dearth of publications on the subject It offers a unique overview of what universities around the world are doing to implement sustainable development i e via curriculum innovation research activities or practical projects and how their efforts relate to education for sustainable development at the university level The Handbook gathers a wealth of information ideas best practices and lessons learned in the context of executing concrete projects and assesses methodological approaches to integrating the topic of sustainable development in university curricula Lastly it documents and disseminates the veritable treasure trove of practical experience currently available on sustainability in higher education

Muhammadu Buhari John N. Paden, 2016-11-22 This authorized biography of the current president of Nigeria provides an up close look at the life of a major ally of the West in the fight against terrorism poverty and corruption The book covers Buhari's early life and education his military career and his brief stint as military of state before he was deposed in a coup A beacon for democracy in Africa Buhari is the only Nigerian opposition candidate to be elected to the presidency The book examines the first year of his presidency looking at the immense security economic and political challenges he faces and the bold moves he is making to tackle them with support at home and abroad Perilous Policing Thomas Nolan, 2019-03-05

Policing and police practices have changed dramatically since the 9 11 terrorist attacks and those changes have accelerated since the summer of 2014 and the death of Michael Brown at the hands of then police officer Darren Wilson in Ferguson Missouri Since the November 2016 election of Donald Trump as president many law enforcement practitioners policy makers and those concerned with issues of social justice have had concerns that there would be seismic shifts in policing priorities and practices at the federal state county and local and tribal levels that will have significant implications for constitutional rights and civil liberties protections particularly for people of color Perilous Policing Criminal Justice in Marginalized Communities provides a much needed interrogatory to law enforcement practices and policies as they continue to evolve during this era of uncertainty and anxiety Key topics include the police and marginalized populations the use of technology to surveil individuals and groups the emergence of the Black Lives Matter movement and the erosion of the police narrative the use of force particularly deadly force against people of color the role of the police in immigration enforcement the war on cops and police militarization Thomas Nolan's critique of current practice and his preliminary conclusions as to how to navigate contemporary policing away from the pitfalls of discredited and counterproductive practices will be of interest to advanced undergraduates and graduate students in Policing Criminology Justice Studies and Criminal Justice programs as well as to researchers law enforcement professionals and police policy makers

Policing Practices and Vulnerable People Nicole L. Asquith, Isabelle Bartkowiak-Théron, 2021-04-20 This textbook addresses existing gaps in police research education and training and provides guidance on how to respond to and address the vulnerability that arises in policing practice It guides students through the conceptual and also the practical issues of managing vulnerability in policing with case studies and practitioners views from the UK Australia New Zealand South Africa the US Canada France and beyond to the Maldives China India Pakistan and Sri Lanka It includes key concepts views from the front line further reading and activities in each chapter Policing Practices and Vulnerable People is aimed at researchers and practitioners working with police While focussed on democratic policing practices this book includes case studies and practitioners views from a wide range of approaches including those from the Global South This book provides readers with a framework that can assist them in converting conceptual knowledge to critical ethical policing practice Policing the Big Apple Jules Stewart, 2021-10-13 As debates about defunding US police forces continue this book offers an enlightening historical overview of one of the largest metropolitan contingents the New York City Police Department The NYPD is America s largest and most celebrated law enforcement agency This book examines the history of policing in New York City from colonial days and the formation of the NYPD at the turn of the twentieth century through 1930s battles with the Mafia to the Zero Tolerance of the 1990s Jules Stewart explores political influence corruption reform and community relations through stories of the NYPD s commissioners and the visions they had for the force and the city as well as at the level of cops on the beat This book is an indispensable chronicle for anyone interested in policing and the history of New York Holding the Blue Line in Australia Virginia Small, 2025-09-26 This book examines the portrayal of contemporary policing in New South Wales Australia by mainstream media and how its sourcing of social media influences public opinion The observable and measurable consequences of this intermingling of news content with viewpoints is that mainstream media in tandem with social media influence political leaders to respond and pivot readily towards platformed views with either quick reactions through policymaking and new or revised legislation or arbitrarily letting matters slide The phenomenon is analysed through specific case studies in the book and the complications for police media and crisis management are identified This extensive research has relevance for policing globally because mainstream media relies heavily on social media content that is instantaneous global curated and reliant on marketable and readily understood narratives The book analyses the selective process by which actors in mainstream media construct news relying on prior framing narratives and perpetuating the received opinion of social media as if it represents general belief Media framing disrupts and interrupts public understandings of the role of policing and perpetuates misunderstanding in the public arena of the institutional values and legislated responsibilities of a police force In addition strategies employed by social media activists to frame and re contextualise crisis events impact on police law enforcement operations and can hamper police capacity to respond to protect public safety
