characteristics and qualities may affect sport participation and opportunities Women in the Sport Industry offers a rare and contemporary approach to examining women in sport leadership management and media Women and Sport was developed with the intent of filling a need by serving as a primary textbook and separates itself from other titles by providing an abundance of instructor ancillary materials that assist in class preparations Pedagogical aids such as objectives glossary terms discussion questions and learning activities in each chapter facilitate student understanding of the material covered Sidebars throughout the text enable the contributors to provide thought provoking content on topics such as media coverage of female athletes how female athletes are used in marketing campaigns and whether athletic competitions should continue to be segregated by sex Readers will discover the impact of these topics in many areas of society from biomedical to psychosocial and historical Through its engaging content Women and Sport Continuing a Journey of Liberation and Celebration serves as a launching pad for discussions that will shape society's ongoing conversation about what it means to be a female athlete or a woman working in sport It is an ideal textbook for adoption in interdisciplinary courses that focus on women and gender studies in sport

Education Policy Stephen Gorard, 2018-09-05 What has been done to achieve fairer and more efficient education systems and what more can be done in the future Stephen Gorard provides a comprehensive examination of crucial policy areas for education such as differential outcomes the poverty gradient and the allocation of resources to education to identify likely causes of educational disadvantage among students and lifelong learners This analysis is supported by 20 years of extensive research based in the home countries of the UK and on work in all EU28 countries USA Pakistan and Japan This approachable rich text brings invaluable insights into the underlying problems within education policy and proposes practical solutions for a brighter future

Building Boys Jennifer L. W. Fink, 2023-04-04 Offers parents tips and tools to help boys move beyond persistent gender stereotypes to full humanity We want to raise well rounded human beings we're just not quite sure how best to do it Confounded by rapidly changing gender norms today's parents are attempting to raise kind compassionate emotionally sensitive boys in a society that simultaneously rewards stereotypical masculinity and is increasingly hostile to boys Surrounded by messages of female empowerment young boys ask their parents Why don't they ever say that boys can be anything they want to be Teaching boys to respect others will help them in the future but can make life awfully difficult in the here and now Making the world a safer place for women and girls is not the only reason to rethink our boy raising practices Current culture harms our boys too and they need and deserve as much support as girls and women Building Boys is written by an in the trenches boymom who intimately understands male development and the challenges currently facing boys and their families Fink offers ten rules that parents can use to guide their parenting choices throughout their sons' lives guidelines that are as relevant to parenting toddlers as they are to parenting teenagers These rules range from emphasizing emotional intelligence to letting your son struggle and ultimately accepting him as he is Fink explains both the science and research behind each rule as well as stories and anecdotes from families including her own Parents are taught how to apply the rule to a variety of common parenting challenges And because these rules are broad they are as applicable to boys with ADHD autism and learning challenges as they are to neurotypical boys
