Measurement Methodologies to Assess the Effectiveness of Global Online Learning Isaias, Pedro, Issa, Tomayess, Kommers, Piet, 2022-02-18 While online learning was an existing practice the COVID 19 pandemic greatly accelerated its capabilities and forced educational organizations to swiftly introduce online learning for all units Though schools will not always be faced with forced online learning it is apparent that there are clear advantages and disadvantages to this teaching method with its usage in the future cemented As such it is imperative that methods for measuring and assessing the effectiveness of online and blended learning are examined in order to improve outcomes and future practices Measurement Methodologies to Assess the Effectiveness of Global Online Learning aims to assess the effectiveness of online teaching and learning in normal and pandemic situations by addressing challenges and opportunities of adoption of online platforms as well as effective learning strategies investigating the best pedagogical practices in digital learning questioning how to improve student motivation and performance and managing and measuring academic workloads online Covering a wide range of topics such as the future of education and digital literacy it is ideal for teachers instructional designers curriculum developers educational software developers academics researchers and students

Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Distance Education and e-Learning Insung Jung, Colin Latchem, 2012-04-05 Quality assurance QA in open and distance learning ODL can be a contentious issue Some argue that it should be judged by the same criteria and methods as face to face education while others claim that it is so different in its organization enrolments and operations that conventional QA mechanisms cannot apply Some advocate the use of specific guidelines and standards for e learning others believe that regardless of the technology the basic principles of quality teaching and learning should apply Providers who have enjoyed freedom from external scrutiny may resist attempts at external regulation and auditing and look upon QA as yet another imposition of corporatization and bureaucracy on education Others see it as a means of establishing a culture of quality self reflection and self improvement There is little research based literature to guide policy makers managers and practitioners in applying QA in education and training to ensure the right balance is found between accountability and autonomy as well as assuring quality for the time and costs involved In this respect Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Distance Education and e Learning is a book that is long overdue It explains what is involved in QA and accreditation in education It describes and analyzes applications of these practices in open distance dual mode and conventional universities throughout Europe North America Africa and the Asia Pacific looking at open schooling e learning in conventional schools non formal adult and community education and corporate and small to medium enterprises Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Distance Education and e Learning is edited and authored by experts with extensive international experience in ODL e learning and QA who give careful consideration to the possibilities and challenges involved The book will be an invaluable guide for all policy makers managers practitioners and researchers in the field FormaMente n. 3-4/2013 AA.
