the latest work on the themes discussed      Chemical News and Journal of Physical Science ,1870      The Chemical News and Journal of Physical Science ,1895      The World Multiple Keiichi Omura, Grant Jun Otsuki, Shiho Satsuka, Atsuro Morita, 2018-11-06 The World Multiple as a collection is an ambitious ethnographic experiment in understanding how the world is experienced and generated in multiple ways through people's everyday practices. Against the dominant assumption that the world is a single universal reality that can only be known by modern expert science, this book argues that worlds are worlded; they are socially and materially crafted in multiple forms in everyday practices involving humans, landscapes, animals, plants, fungi, rocks, and other beings. These practices do not converge to a singular knowledge of the world but generate a world multiple, a world that is more than one integrated whole yet less than many fragmented parts. The book brings together authors from Europe, Japan, and North America in conversation with ethnographic material from Africa, the Americas, and Asia in order to explore the possibilities of the world multiple to reveal new ways to intervene in the legacies of colonialism, imperialism, and capitalism that inflict damage on humans and nonhumans. The contributors show how the world is formed through interactions among techno-scientific, vernacular, local, and indigenous practices and examine the new forms of politics that emerge out of them. Engaged with recent anthropological discussions of ontologies, the Anthropocene, and multi-species ethnography, the book addresses the multidimensional realities of people's lives and the quotidian politics they entail.

Microbehavioral Econometric Methods S. Niggol Seo, 2016-06-07 Microbehavioral Econometric Methods and Environmental Studies uses microeconomic methods to model the behavior of individuals, then demonstrates the modelling approaches in addressing policy needs. It links theory and methods with applications and incorporates data to connect individual choices and global environmental issues. This extension of traditional environmental economics presents modeling strategies and methodological techniques, then applies them to hands-on examples. Throughout the book, readers can access chapter summaries, problem sets, multiple household survey data with regard to agricultural and natural resources in Sub-Saharan Africa, South America, and India, and empirical results and solutions from the SAS software. Emphasizes ways that choices and outcomes are modelled simultaneously. Illuminates relationships between micro-decisions and global environmental systems. Uses software and cases in analyzing environmental policy issues. Links microeconomic models to applications in environmental economics and thereby connects individual choices with global environmental issues.      The Routledge Atlas of South Asian Affairs Robert W. Bradnock, 2015-10-14 South Asia has developed from a group of newly independent post-colonial states of at most secondary importance to the wider world to its current position as a region of central strategic importance to both global economic development and world peace and stability. This Atlas highlights the global significance of South Asia in relation to economic, geopolitical, and strategic interests. It provides a coherent descriptive and analytical account of the key elements of the complex societies that make up the region and its component countries. Illustrated with more than 100 original maps and offering concise entries on key issues, the book is structured thematically in these sections Global Context Geographical Environments Historical Evolution of South Asia Key Issues in modern South Asia Economy and Security Designed for use in teaching undergraduate and graduate classes and seminars in geography history economics anthropology international relations political science and the environment as well as regional courses on the South Asia this book is also a comprehensive reference source for libraries and decision makers focusing on South Asia

Technology For

Transformation Libbi R. Miller,Daniel Becker,Katherine Becker,2016-04-01 This book serves as a platform for educators and researchers to unite educational technology and social justice While educational technology is a rapidly changing and progressive field of research and practice it remains largely separate from education for social justice Current literature about educational technology is often approached from a technical how to perspective that emphasizes ways to implement technology into the classroom Technology is often viewed as inevitable yet neutral and value free Educational technology however is anything but neutral The contributors collectively advance a hopeful discourse by exploring the potential of technology as a vehicle to transform and emancipate while not forgoing a critically reflective measure of self conscious critique of our own role as educators students or scholars in oppressive silences constraints and conditions This edited collection makes an important and unique contribution to the field as it will be the first published volume to detail research theory and practice regarding student use of technology in achieving liberatory aims since IAP s 2009 publication ICT for Education Development and Social Justice The fields of educational technology and social justice are vast and applicable in many domains including teacher education graduate programs and K 12 education This work is intended to appeal to a diverse academic and professional audience of K 12 teachers teacher educators educational technology and social justice scholars and policy makers Scholars and academics instructing graduate level educational technology courses can reference this edited collection as the most current text on socially just educational technology Educational practitioners from teacher education programs and the K 12 sector may use this book as a source of ideas and inspiration to incorporate student use of technology toward emancipatory aims This title could be adopted as a course text for both undergraduate and graduate education courses in media literacy digital literacy distance education education for social justice and teacher preparation and educational technology courses Readers will also be able to use the book as a guide when critically analyzing their own professional practice whether it is in research working with K 12 students or preparing future educators or scholars

Reimagining Climate Change Paul Wapner, Hilal Elver, 2016-02-05 Responding to climate change has become an industry Governments corporations activist groups and others now devote billions of dollars to mitigation and adaptation and their efforts represent one of the most significant policy measures ever dedicated to a global challenge Despite its laudatory intent the response industry or Climate Inc is failing Reimagining Climate Change questions established categories routines and practices that presently constitute accepted solutions to tackling climate change and offers alternative routes forward It does so by unleashing the political imagination The chapters grasp the larger arc of collective experience interpret its meaning for the choices we face and creatively visualize alternative trajectories that can help us cognitively and emotionally enter into alternative climate futures They probe the meaning and effectiveness of climate protection from below forms of community and practice that are emerging in various locales around the world and that hold promise for greater collective resonance They also question climate protection from above in the form of industrial and modernist orientations and examine large scale agribusinesses as well as criticize the concept of resilience as it is presently being promoted as a response to climate change This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change global environmental politics and environmental studies in general as well as climate change activists

Handbook of Macroeconomics John B. Taylor, Harald Uhlig, 2016-12-01 Handbook of Macroeconomics surveys all major advances in macroeconomic scholarship since the publication of Volume 1 1999 carefully distinguishing between empirical theoretical methodological and policy issues It courageously examines why existing models failed during the financial crisis and also addresses well deserved criticism head on With contributions from the world's chief macroeconomists its reevaluation of macroeconomic scholarship and speculation on its future constitute an investment worth making Serves a double role as a textbook for macroeconomics courses and as a gateway for students to the latest research Acts as a one of a kind resource as no major collections of macroeconomic essays have been published in the last decade

The Securitization of Climate Change: Australian and United States' Military Responses (2003 - 2013) Michael Durant Thomas, 2017-07-25 This book examines how the armed forces of the United States and Australia have responded to the threat posed by climate change to national security Drawing on established securitisation frameworks Copenhagen and Paris Schools the author uses a combination of quantitative and qualitative techniques to systematically examine more than 3 500 speeches policies and doctrinal articles since 2003. Importantly, the author undertakes an examination of the intersection between the political and the military spheres, probing the question of how ideology has influenced the military's uptake on the issue. In this context, the author identifies the difficulty of an ostensibly apolitical institution responding to what has become both a hyper-political issue and an unprecedented security threat. A close examination of the key political actors, their intent, outlook, and political mandate for broader climate action is therefore crucial to understanding the policy freedom and constraints within which military leaders operate. The book consists of eight chapters divided into four parts focusing on perspectives and methodological insights, empirical case studies, case study comparison, and concluding observations. Offers a rare and systematic examination of military climate policy by a military officer from Australia. Identifies a divergence of Australian military climate policy from that of the US military during the Obama Administration. Develops a unique method that quantifies climate security, enabling a graphical representation for quick and ready reference, ideally suited to policy makers.

Experimenting with Religion Jonathan Jong, 2023. This book showcases several experiments as examples of how psychologists can study religion and spirituality, casting a light on both the ingenuity and limitations of each. Ultimately, this book demonstrates that such scientific experiments are works of imagination that can help us discover truths about the human mind's proclivity for religious ideas as long as we can adapt and learn along the way. Modelling, Simulating and Forecasting Regional Climate and Weather Hans Von Storch, Frauke Feser, Martin Stendel, Yinlong Xu, René Laprise, Izuru Takayabu, 2020-09-11.
