

SECTION 1

INTRODUCTION

This Manual is designed to acquaint you with [Company Name] and provide you with information about working conditions, benefits, and policies affecting your employment.

The information contained in this Manual applies to all employees of [Company Name]. Following the policies described in this Manual is considered a condition of continued employment. However, nothing in this Manual alters an employee's status. The contents of this Manual shall not constitute nor be construed as a promise of employment or as a contract between the Company and any of its employees. The Manual is a summary of our policies, which are presented here only as a matter of information.

You are responsible for reading, understanding, and complying with the provisions of this Manual. Our objective is to provide you with a work environment that is constructive to both personal and professional growth.

1.1 CHANGES IN POLICY

This Manual supersedes all previous employee manuals and memos that may have been issued from time to time on subjects covered in this Manual.

However, since our business and our organization are subject to change, we reserve the right to interpret, change, suspend, cancel, or dispute with or without notice all or any part of our policies, procedures, and benefits at any time. We will notify all employees of these changes. Changes will be effective on the dates determined by the Company, and after those dates all superseded policies will be null.

No individual supervisor or manager has the authority to change policies at any time. If you are uncertain about any policy or procedure, speak with your direct supervisor.

1.2 EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS

We rely upon the accuracy of information contained in the employment application and the accuracy of other data presented throughout the hiring process and employment. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or data may result in exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment or, if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

1.3 EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

You enter into employment voluntarily, and you are free to resign at any time for any reason or no reason. Similarly, [Company Name] is free to conclude its relationship with any employee at any time for any reason or no reason. Following the probationary period, employees are required to follow the Employment Termination Policy (See Section 3.13).

Managing Employees in Foodservice Operations David K. Hayes, Jack D. Ninemeier, 2024-04-30 Managing Employees in Foodservice Operations Obtain and retain skilled professional employees with this accessible guide. A foodservice operation can only remain successful if its employees are served as well as its customers. Just as a business with no customers will fail for lack of revenue, one without skilled professional satisfied staff will be unable to provide service at the level customers demand. Attracting and retaining qualified staff is a critical challenge for the modern foodservice industry, and one which is only becoming more urgent in today's market. Managing Employees in Foodservice Operations offers a uniquely foodservice oriented guide to obtaining training and retaining employees in a fast paced and highly competitive industry. The book provides content perfectly aligned with a two year community college program, courses in human resources, supervision, small business administration, or related subjects. Detailed discussion of topics including workplace health and safety, recruitment and retention, and many more. Ideas cultivated during the authors' decades of combined experience in hospitality, foodservice leadership, and research. Material to support instructors conducting courses including PowerPoints, chapter by chapter exam questions, and case studies. Managing Employees in Foodservice Operations is ideal for students in foodservice related courses as well as professional business.
