Guthrie, 1915 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries Homer: A Guide for the Perplexed Ahuvia Kahane, 2012-12-05 Shortlisted for the Runciman Award 2013 Homer's poetry is widely recognized as the beginning of the literary tradition of the West and among its most influential canonical texts. Outlining a series of key themes, ideas and values associated with Homer and Homeric poetry, Homer: A Guide for the Perplexed explores the question of the formation of the Iliad and the Odyssey, the so called Homeric Problem. Among the main Homeric themes which the book considers are origin and form, orality and composition, heroic values, social structure and social bias, gender roles and gendered interpretation, ethnicity, representations of religion, mortality and the divine, memory, poetry and poetics and canonicity and tradition and the history of Homeric receptions. Drawing upon his extensive knowledge of scholarship on Homer and early epic, Ahuvia Kahane explores contemporary critical and philosophical questions relating to Homer and the Homeric tradition and examines his wider cultural impact, contexts and significance. This is the ideal companion to study of this most influential poet, providing readers with some basic suggestions for further pursuing their interests in Homer.

The Well-Trained Mind Susan Wise Bauer, Jessie Wise, 2024-04-02 The classic handbook on home schooling updated for a new generation of parents and students. Is your child getting lost in the system, becoming bored, losing his or her natural eagerness to learn? If so, it may be time to take charge of your child's education by doing it yourself. The Well-Trained Mind will instruct you step by step on how to give your child an academically rigorous, comprehensive education from preschool through high school, one that will train him or her to read, to think, to understand, to be well rounded and curious about learning. Veteran home educator Susan Wise Bauer outlines the classical pattern of education called the trivium, which organizes learning around the maturing capacity of the child's mind and comprises three stages: the elementary school grammar stage when the building blocks of information are absorbed through memorization and rules; the middle school logic stage in which the student begins to think more analytically; and the high school rhetoric stage where the student learns to write and speak with force and originality Using this theory as your model you ll be able to instruct your child whether full time or as a supplement to classroom education in all levels of reading writing history geography mathematics science foreign languages rhetoric logic art and music regardless of your own aptitude in those subjects A new optional Resource Recommendations Portal provides subscribers with curated lists of the best curricula for every grade level and learning style Thousands of parents have already used the methods described in The Well Trained Mind to create a truly superior education for children in their care You do have control over what and how your child learns The Well Trained Mind will give you the tools you ll need to teach your child with confidence and success
