Advances in Engineering Education in the Middle East and North Africa Mahmoud Abdulwahed, Mazen O. Hasna, Jeffrey E. Froyd, 2015-11-18 This book provides a collection of the latest advances in engineering education in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region and sheds insights for future development. It is one of the first books to address the lack of comprehensive literature on undergraduate engineering curricula and stimulates intellectual and critical discourse on the next wave of engineering innovation and education in the MENA region. The authors look at recent innovations through the lens of four topics: learning and teaching, curriculum development, assessment and accreditation, and challenges and sustainability. They also include analyses of pedagogical innovations, models for transforming engineering education, and methods for using technological innovations to enhance active learning. Engineering education topics on issues such as construction, health and safety, urban design, and environmental engineering in the context of the MENA region are covered in further detail. The book concludes with practical recommendations for implementations in engineering education. This is an ideal book for engineering education academics, engineering curriculum developers, and accreditation specialists and deans and leaders in engineering education.

Handbook of Water Economics Ariel Dinar, Kurt Schwabe, 2015-09-25 Water scarcity, whether in the quality or quantity dimension, afflicts most countries. Decisions on water management and allocation over time, space, and among uses and users involve economic considerations. This Handbook assembles research that represents recent thinking and applications in water economics. The book chapters are written by leading scholars in the field who address issues related to its use, management, and value. The topics cover analytical methods, sectoral and intersectoral water issues, and issues associated with different sources of water.

Open Source Archaeology Andrew T. Wilson, Ben Edwards, 2015-01-01 Open Source Archaeology: Ethics and Practice brings together authors and researchers in the field of open source archaeology, defined as encompassing the ethical imperative for open public access to the results of publicly funded research, practical solutions to open data projects, open source software applications in archaeology, public information sharing projects in archaeology, open GIS, and the open context system of data management and sharing. This edited volume is designed to discuss important issues around open access to data and software in academic and commercial archaeology, as well as to summarise both the current state of theoretical engagement and technological development in the field of open archaeology. Ben Edwards was trained in archaeology at the University of Durham, achieving his BA, MA, and PhD. His first commercial work was for Archaeological Services Durham University, before moving on to become a Lecturer in Archaeological Practice at the University of Liverpool, where he taught for three years. During this time, Ben began his project management work, undertaking both commercial and research excavations and survey projects. His teaching, archaeological practice, and heritage management proved to be an excellent basis from which to develop his professional expertise. Ben now lectures at Manchester Metropolitan University in Archaeology and Heritage. He currently researches open source software and hardware for use in the field and advanced 3D surveying techniques. Andrew Wilson, Andrew

Wilson was trained in archaeology at the University of Liverpool Upon achieving his BA at the University Andrew moved south to study Computer Applied Archaeology at the University of Southampton where he was awarded an MSc Andrew returned to the University of Liverpool where he has recently completed a PhD During this time Andrew coordinated a number of projects both in the UK and Middle East specialising in advanced surveying techniques of archaeological remains Working in the the School of Computer Science Bangor University Andrew has developed his keen interest in Open data policies and ethics This interest was the starting point for this volume

Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Physical Science Paper 2 June 2013 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
