Killam, Ruth Rowe, 2000 Refreshing African Studies Review The entries are knowledgeable thorough and clearly written Highly recommended Choice an ambitious reference guide to works on African literature African Studies Review This comprehensive compendium will be a handy companion for anyone working on African literatures The entries are authoritative and up to date providing reliable information on the hundreds of authors and texts that have contributed to a whole continent's literary flowering Bernth Lindfors A comprehensive introduction and guide to African authored works with over 1 000 cross referenced entries covering classics in African writing literary genres and movements biographical details of authors and wider themes linking African Afro Caribbean and Afro American literatures MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 2008 Gender in motion Dominique Grisard, 2007 Notes Munger Africana Library, 1980 Exceptional Spaces Della Pollock, 2018-06-15 Taking interdisciplinary and diverse approaches these thirteen essays explore the multifaceted relationship between performance and history By considering performance as both a useful frame for understanding historical practices and a mode of historical production itself performance in history and performance as history the contributors chart new directions in such fields as cultural studies contemporary historiography museum studies and life narrative research Geographically and chronologically the collection's sweep is broad ranging from the nineteenth century to the present from Victorian theater to commissions of inquiry in Kenya from dissent in post Soviet Lithuania to plantation tours in the American South Together the essays make up a work that is truly interdisciplinary in breadth and focus By combining the methodologies of history and performance studies the contributors illuminate the structure and function of cultural production in all its forms The contributors are Michael S Bowman Ruth Laurion Bowman Elizabeth Gray Buck Kay Ellen Capo David William Cohen Tracy Davis Kirk W Fuoss Shannon Jackson D Soyini Madison Carol Mavor E S Atieno Odhiambo Della Pollock Jeffrey H Richards and Joseph R Roach Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel, 2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid's laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here
