Barbara O'Neal, author of The All You Can Dream Buffet, 7-time RITA award winner and RWA Hall of Fame member: The business of writing is unnecessarily intimidating. Editors want good writing, so why can it be so hard to get published? Writer's Market helps make sense of that big question, offering the kind of straight-shooting advice writers need. Erica Wright, author of the novel The Red Chameleon and poetry collection Instructions for Killing the Jackal, as well as Senior Editor for Guernica Magazine.

Beyond the Glass Case Nick Merriman, 2016-09-16 The book is the result of a nationwide survey in the UK that measured public use of and attitudes to the past, archaeology, and collecting. The author reviews this research in the light of contemporary theory on ideology and representation and goes on to develop a convincing explanation for the failure of museums and similar institutions to connect with the majority of the public. Merriman marshals the empirical and theoretical work to make a powerful case for a new approach to attract the under-served populations, one which encourages a view of the museum as a service helping its public to see, understand, and engage with its own personal, local, and multi-faceted past.

Curating Pop Sarah Baker, Lauren

Istvandity, Raphaël Nowak, 2019-06-27 Curating Pop speaks to the rapidly growing interest in the study of popular music exhibitions which has occurred alongside the increasing number of popular music museums in operation across the world. Focusing on curatorial practices and processes this book draws on interviews with museum workers and curators from twenty museums globally including the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville the Experience Music Project in Seattle and the PopMuseum in Prague. Through a consideration of the subjective experiences of curators involved in the exhibition of popular music in museums in a range of geographic locations Curating Pop compares institutional practices internationally illustrating the ways in which popular music history is presented to visitors in a wider sense. The Heritage Turn in

China Carol Ludwig, Linda Walton, Yi-Wen Wang, 2025-10-01 The Heritage Turn in China: The Reinvention, Dissemination and Consumption of Heritage focuses on heritage discourse and practice in China today as it has evolved from the heritage turn that can be dated to the 1990s. Using a variety of disciplinary approaches to regionally and topically diverse case studies the contributors to this edited volume show how particular versions of the past are selected, re-invented, disseminated and consumed for contemporary purposes. These studies explore how the Chinese state utilises heritage not only for tourism, entertainment, educational and commercial purposes but also as part of broader political strategies on both the national and international stage. Together they argue that the Chinese state deploys modes of heritage governance to construct new modernities while strengthening collective national identity in support of both its political legitimacy and its claim to status as an international superpower. The authors also consider ways in which state management of heritage is contested by some stakeholders whose embrace of heritage has a different purpose and meaning. Writer's Market 2019 Robert Lee

Magazines and Trade Publications, 1906 Snapshots of the Past Brian M. Fagan, 1995 Archaeology has been a subject of endless fascination to scholars, students and the general public. For the past three decades Prof Brian Fagan has been the key narrator of the story of the past for many through his textbooks, trade books and numerous magazine and journal articles. In recent years Fagan has reported on the latest news, theories and controversies in archaeology through his regular Timelines column in Archaeology Magazine. In Snapshots of the Past Fagan collects many of these vignettes into a single work leading the reader on a tour through time and space that ranges from the ascent of the human species to the public controversies that concern today's archaeologist. In these 30 brief chapters the author offers readers a series of snapshots of the issues of greatest contemporary interest: the Eve hypothesis, the peopling of the New World, site looting, the translation of Mayan hieroglyphs, the domestication of animals, the impact of feminism on archaeology, the archaeology of slavery and evidence of human cannibalism among many others. Included among the articles are several pieces written specifically for this volume, including a description of the recent spectacular cave art finds at Chauvet Grotto in France. For instructors of archaeology, the book is a handy compilation of brief, interesting cases to engage your students. For serious archaeologists, the book represents a collection of works of one of the important synthesizers of the field. For the avocational archaeologist, the book provides a fascinating, readable update on issues of current concern. 2014 Writer's Market Robert Lee

This text looks at human-animal interactions, especially some of the less well-known aspects of the field. A number of studies in the book document some of the vast changes humankind has wrought upon the natural environment through the movement of various species of animals around the world. These chapters provide contributions to the understanding of contemporary ecological problems, especially the deforestation taking place to provide grazing for live stock. The 31 contributions offer a shop window of approaches, primarily from a biological perspective. The Scrolls and the Scriptures Stanley E. Porter, Craig A.
