Beyond Conflict and Reduction William Desmond, John Steffen, Koen Decoster, 2001 While much attention has been devoted to the conflicts between religion and science in the modern age less rarely has sufficient attention been devoted to the complex interplay between religion science and philosophy This book offers a set of wide ranging essays in which the interplay between all these three is the explicit focus of attention The essays reflect a desire to think of this interplay in terms other than conflict and reduction The book also represents a pluralism of approaches to reflection on this interplay Part I represents a more idealistic orientation in which religion philosophy and science are seen to enjoy a complementarity Part II formulates the interplay more from the standpoint of process philosophy Part III explores the issue with primary emphasis on the contributions of science In Part IV the essays reflect a desire to take the religious on its own terms and explore the interplay with philosophy and science with the proper seriousness solicited by these terms

Crucified with Christ, Through A Classical Eye Andrew Galloway, R.F. Yeager, 2009-04-15 As students and scholars of Boccaccio Chaucer and Dante know late medieval writers were influenced greatly by the work of peers that crossed historical national cultural linguistic boundaries Through a Classical Eye contains first rate essays that demonstrate a range of strategies for undertaking transcultural and transhistorical studies of the late medieval period and examines medieval literature and culture where English Italian and Latin materials overlap Written in honour of the groundbreaking contributions that Winthrop Wetherbee made to this growing area of study the volume s contributors advance his legacy and add to the burgeoning interest in setting medieval literary studies into wide intellectual and historical horizons Divided into three illuminating sections on Medieval Latin authorship Italy and the world and England and beyond and including a personal reminiscence of Wetherbee by the noted novelist Robert Morgan Through a Classical Eye is an outstanding collection that provides key insights into medieval literature and culture Laws.
