research needs     Habits of Mind Across the Curriculum Arthur L. Costa, Bena Kallick, 2009-01-15 Distinguished educators Arthur L. Costa and Bena Kallick present this collection of stories by educators around the world who have successfully implemented the habits in their day to day teaching in K 12 classrooms. The collective wisdom and experience of these thoughtful practitioners provide readers with insight into the transdisciplinary nature of the 16 Habits of Mind intelligent behaviors that lead to success in school and the larger world as well as model lessons and suggestions for weaving the habits into daily instruction in language arts, music, physical education, social studies, math, foreign language and other content areas. Readers will come to understand that far from an add on to the curriculum, the habits are an essential element for helping students at all grade levels successfully deal with the challenges they face in school and beyond. As in all their books on the Habits of Mind, Costa and Kallick have a broad and worthwhile goal in mind. As they say in the concluding chapter of this volume, "If we want a future that is much more thoughtful, vastly more cooperative, greatly more compassionate, and a whole lot more loving than we have, we have to invent it. That future is in our homes, schools, and classrooms today. The Habits of Mind are the tools we all can use to invent our desired vision of the future."     How to Teach Students Who Don't Look Like You Bonnie M. Davis, 2006 Working with students from diverse backgrounds is one of the greatest challenges teachers face. In addition, teachers and administrators face additional pressure to close the achievement gap between white students and their racial and ethnically diverse counterparts. A former teacher, Bonnie Davis has particular insight into this issue as a white woman with a black son who has successfully taught students of diverse backgrounds. Drawing on the educational literature on the subject, Bonnie has created an interactive workbook for teachers that will help them understand their students and find new and better ways of teaching to them.     Integrating Literature in the Disciplines Sharon Kane, 2020-04-22 The Second Edition of this practical and comprehensive resource offers a multitude of ways to incorporate literature into teaching and learning across a range of disciplines. Future and practicing teachers, librarians, instructional coaches, and school leaders can implement the ideas within this text to improve the literacy skills and knowledge of students while also addressing standards and curricular goals of various content areas. The new edition recognizes a paradigm shift from content areas to disciplines, reflecting the specific ways reading and writing are used in different fields of study. Updated with current research and practices, the volume recommends and evaluates books in different genres and categories with chapters on informational books, fiction, biography, and memoir, poetry, and hands-on and how-to books. For every category, Kane provides a rationale, instructional strategies, and author studies as well as lists and descriptions of books related to curricular areas. With a wealth of activities and new BookTalks, this Second Edition is greatly revised and features expanded attention to technology, digital learning, diversity, and culture. Using this text will create opportunities for deep discussions and will stimulate students' interest and motivation to read and learn. Integrating Literature in the Disciplines helps educators identify books that fit with any subject to enhance the creative and affective dimensions of school life, encourages interdisciplinary connections, and increases the depth and relevance of lessons It is ideal for professional development and serves as a tool for Readers Advisory to match books with readers throughout the school day and beyond      A Study Guide for Pat Mora's "Elena" Gale, Cengage Learning,2010 A Study Guide for Pat Mora s Elena excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs      Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1994      Teaching Reading in the 21st Century Michael F.
