Dunn, 2013-07-15 In this book Dan Dunn proposes that the biblical theme of life is extremely important and thus provides a helpful foundation for the theory and practice of evangelism He makes a strong case for Christ followers to embrace a life based evangelistic vision as a way to help non believers choose the full and vibrant life that God intends for them in Jesus. While making this strong case, he also urges readers to avoid casting aside other evangelistic visions such as those based on discipleship, the kingdom, forgiveness, atonement, etc. Instead, he invites us to add a life-based evangelistic vision to the possibilities available to us for helping people choose to follow Jesus and thus experience the life He makes possible for them.

Commentary Margaret Daly-Denton, 2017-07-13. This volume in the Earth Bible Commentary Series suggests how John's Gospel might motivate and resource a Christian response to the ecological crisis. Margaret Daly-Denton shows how aptly Mary Magdalene recognized the risen Jesus as the gardener. In 20:15, completing his day's work in the garden of the Earth. The Johannine story of Jesus offers his present-day followers a paradigm with considerable potential to inspire Earth-care, sustainable living, and commitment to eco-justice. The Fourth Evangelist believes that Jesus fulfils the Jewish hope for a restoration envisaged as a return of humankind to Eden. Keeping this theme continually in mind, Daly-Denton reads the Gospel with sensitivity to the role of the more-than-human world in the narrative and with particular attention to the scriptural underlay that repeatedly brings this world into the foreground. The commentary begins with an exploration of the memories and associations that the garden setting would have evoked for the intended audience. It then follows the Gospel's spiral path that eventually leads to the garden of Mary's encounter. Each chapter concludes by asking how believers might do God's work. In 6:28, in today's ecologically damaged world, and by offering practical suggestions indicative of the reflection that readers of the commentary will be able to do in their own setting.

Woman at the Well, Woman's Who's who of America John W. Leonard, 1914. Sense Perception and Testimony in the Gospel According to John Sunny Kuan-Hui Wang, 2017-06-02.

In this book, Sunny Kuan-Hui Wang explores the relationship between sense perception and testimony in the Gospel of John. While Johannine scholars tend to focus on one or the other, she shows that sense perception and testimony are both significant and are used together with the intention of drawing readers into the narrative so that they become witnesses in an emotionally engaged way. It is argued that John's use of sense perception together with testimony is rooted in Jewish literature. Yet John also employs a Graeco-Roman rhetorical technique, enargeia, which appeals to the persuasive power of sense perception to make his narrative vivid. John does not downplay sense perception. Rather, he uses it in the context of testimony as a means of persuasion to draw the readers into their imagination into the experience of the first disciples and thus deeper into faith and witness.
