Dear Sister in Christ,

I am writing this as a letter to you personally, Diane, my dear sister in Christ, so that if you become anxious about the future, or you need encouragement about what is ahead, you can read it and hopefully hear God speak to your heart.

I am writing this because I want to remind you of the great future God has for you. I know this because He said so. He says you have not seen, nor heard, nor even imagined anything as great as what He has prepared for you (1 Corinthians 2:9).

You have no idea how great your future is. He says that what He has for you is so great that if you truly understood it, you would feel "that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed" in you (Revelation 8:18). That means whatever you envision for your life right now is already too small.

Don't judge your future by what you read in the newspaper or the words someone spoke over you one time. Your future is in God's hands, my dear sister in Christ.

Don't become discouraged if things don't happen as fast as you would like them to. They never do. Don't be concerned if you are not seeing all that you want in response to your prayers. You will.

Ecojustice Adult Education: Theory and Practice in the Cultivation of the Cultural Commons Audrey M. Dentith, Wendy Griswold, 2017-03-31 As ecological issues increase and concern worldwide is mounting about the changing nature of work and cultural life the field of adult education must respond Adult education holds much potential for its ability to highlight cultural knowledge promote change and maximize the capacity of adults to work together in strengthening mutually supportive communities that contribute to a sustainable future It is imperative that we re educate adults about productive but sustainable work and stronger local community living within an understanding of the relational being and the interdependency of all things This edited collection explores the cultural roots of the ecological cultural crisis and its relationship to adult education The development of sound practices and new cultural understandings among adults are emphasized Certainly there exists evidence of small grassroots work that builds hope and skills for the coming of a new age of sustainable and just life This volume discusses the Connections between sustainability environmental and ecojustice education Forms of radical sustainability adult education Established cultural institutions as potential agents of change Principles of ecojustice education and Implementation of these principles in formal and community education settings This is the 153rd volume of the Jossey Bass series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education Noted for its depth of coverage it explores issues of common interest to instructors administrators counselors and policymakers in a broad range of education settings such as colleges and universities extension programs businesses libraries and museums The Guide to Religious and Inspirational Magazines Elizabeth Gould, Livia Fiordelisi, 1993 The Guide to Religious and Inspirational Markets ,1995 American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser, 1931 Islam and The English Enlightenment Zulfiqar Ali Shah, 2022-06-02 Never before to my knowledge has the cross fertilisation of Western and Islamic ideas been so encyclopedically documented as it is here In reading Islam and the English Enlightenment you will never see the relationship between Islam and the West in the same way again ROBERT F SHEDI NGER Professor of Religion Luther College Dr Zulfiqar Ali Shah s Islam and the English Enlightenment is one of the most profoundly enlightening books I have read in years Dr

Shah compellingly demonstrates that the thinkers of English Enlightenment were undeniably indebted to Islamic sciences and thought and that the foundational principles of rationalist thought scientific inquiry and religious toleration were deeply anchored in the Islamic tradition KHALED ABOU EL FADL Omar Azmeralda Alfi Distinguished Professor of Law UCLA School of Law This is a book that anyone interested in stepping outside a Eurocentric view of the rise of the West and of the modern age must read MICHAEL A GILLESPIE Professor of Political Science Philosophy Duke University Dr Shah convincingly demonstrates the central role that Islam played in shaping the values and ideas of the Enlightenment reformers such as John Locke and Isaac Newton who had helped to produce the modern world GERALD MACLEAN Emeritus Professor University of Exeter

Staritsa Donald A. Guglielmi, 2017-12-07 The present book is the first work to highlight Catherine Doherty's vocation to spiritual motherhood Drawing upon primary archival sources the author traces Catherine's development as a staritsa or spiritual mother in the Russian Eastern tradition Of particular interest are the chapters dealing with Catherine's exercise of spiritual motherhood for priests and laity alike Previously unpublished letters of spiritual direction between Catherine and her major spiritual directors offer the reader a privileged glimpse into the soul of this servant of God and her spiritual children as she grows in her vocation as staritsa For example in one striking letter Catherine describes how she guided a disillusioned young priest who was struggling with a drinking problem and temptations involving young women and was bordering on despair With clenched teeth I sailed into him first gently almost caressingly calling him back to Christ he once loved then more sternly then quietly He left full of thanks and some hope

Learning as Shared Practice in Monastic Communities, 1070-1180 Micol Long, 2021-10-11 In this study Micol Long looks at Latin letters written in Western Europe between 1070 and 1180 to reconstruct how monks and nuns learned from each other in a continuous informal and reciprocal way during their daily communal life The book challenges the common understanding of education as the transmission of knowledge via a hierarchical master-disciple learning model and shows how knowledge was also shared exchanged jointly processed and developed Long presents a new and more complicated picture of reciprocal knowledge exchanges which could be horizontal and bottom-up as well as vertical and where the same individuals could assume different educational roles depending on the specific circumstances and on the learning contents See inside the book Air Force Chaplains: Air Force chaplains, 1947-1960 United States.
