Success Essay Introduction

As an actress, understanding and playing different roles and personas is part of my study and profession. Every day, I get to imagine what would be going through another person's mind, but being that person. Having done that and switching my behavioral traits so abruptly, I was forced to ponder about the uniting line between humans. If every person is different, and thinks differently, how can their measurement of success be the same? Yet, for people at large to be successful, there had to be one definitive domain of actions which might yield as an outcome – success. Then I came to the conclusion, that success is a function of the mind, but an attribute of the heart. If people believe in themselves and achieve the will of the heart through the struggle of the mind, then I believe success is attained. Success hence is a very relative term. There can be no one way of looking at it, or else there would only be one successful person in the world! It is very dynamic state, which changes every time new challenges are set up in life. And so, how I take success in my life is totally dependent on me, and nothing else. People sometimes like to think of success as being measured in terms of money, fame or power, but my definition of success is different. I measure success through the contentment of my heart. And if I have achieved that, I can sleep a successful person every night of my life. Success is a mind game, and a person having achieved everything in life may consider him/her self as having achieved nothing at all. As far as I am concerned, I consider myself as a very successful person. If I can make a difference, then I think I am successful. And I get that opportunity any time I want. I do not have to be a film star, or the president of a country or the CEO of a multi national, but quite the contrary, my success is being myself. I do not believe in establishing such norms for success that may be measured only after 2 decades of a person's life, or by a hefty bank account, or by a fan following. I think every day is a challenge, and hence it should be measured accordingly. Over the years, I have learnt that a single actor may shine out as the star of the play, but the true success of the play always is a consequence of the team that works together. It not only includes the other actors in the cast, but all those people who remain behind the screen. Though limelight may be the fate of a few, the true endeavor has come
