Media Information Australia ,1991 The Politics of Language in Australia Uldis Ozolins,1993-05-28 This book traces language policy in Australia from World War II to the present examining the changes in government policy over this time and changes in major public institutions due to the presence of these languages The major focus is on changes in the education and broadcasting systems with attention also to interpreting translating industrial relations and the role of languages in diplomacy and trade Dr Ozolins places language in the context of multicultural politics and shows that government language policies that were once prompted by suspicion now accept and even encourage cultural and linguistic maintenance In fact Australia has introduced many innovations of international significance in language policy particularly with the National Language Policy announced in 1987 This policy marked a decisive change in political assumptions toward languages in postwar Australia because it recognized the importance of languages other than English The Australian TV Book Stuart Cunningham,2020-07-25 Television is the most pervasive mass medium of the industrialised world It is blamed for creating alienation and violence in society yet at the same time regarded as trivial and unworthy of serious attention It is the main purveyor of global popular culture yet also intensely local The Australian TV Book paints the big picture of the small screen in Australia It examines industry dynamics in a rapidly changing environment the impact of new technology recent changes in programming and the ways in which the television industry targets its audiences The authors highlight what is distinctive about television in Australia and how it is affected by international developments This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand Australian television today Stuart Cunningham is Professor of Media and Journalism at Queensland University of Technology Graeme Turner is director of the Centre for Critical and Cultural Studies at the University of Queensland They are editors of the leading textbook The Media in Australia and authors of many other works on the media

World Guide to Television ,1996 Encyclopedia of Television Horace Newcomb,2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of Television 2nd edition website ECIME 2014 Proceedings of the 8th European Conference on IS Management and Evaluation Steven de Haes, 2014 The News Media in Puerto Rico Federico Subervi-Vélez, Sandra Rodríguez-Cotto, Jairo Lugo-Ocando, 2020-10-27 The News Media in Puerto Rico offers a synopsis as well as a critical analysis of the Island's news media system with emphasis on the political and economic factors that most influence how the media operate. The authors also document the impact of Hurricane Maria on the media structures and the changing media landscape given the political, economic and colonial strictures. Building on interviews with news media professionals, the book further presents detailed insights about journalism and journalism education in these times of crises. The final chapters include theoretical frameworks and methodological guidelines for the analysis of other colonial, post-colonial and neo-colonial media systems with research recommendations valuable for future studies of the Island's media as well as for cross-national comparisons. This book will be an essential read for students and scholars interested in learning not only about the Puerto Rican and Latin American mass media but also the media systems of other colonial neo-colonial countries Media Firms Robert G. Picard, 2014-04-04 Media Firms presents studies applying the company level approach to media and communication firms. It explores differences among missions, strategies, organizational choices and other business decisions. Reviewing economic factors and pressures on media and communications companies, this book seeks to improve understanding of how these elements affect market and company structures, operations and performance of firms. The chapters, written by leading scholars worldwide, were selected from papers on the theme of media firms presented at the 5th World Media Economics Conference hosted by the Turku School of Economics and Business Administration and The Journal of Media Economics. The collected studies provide an overview of economic and related managerial issues affecting the structures of markets in which firms compete, the operations of media and communications firms and their financial performance. As a result, it expands the discussion of economic issues traditionally associated with the field due to narrowed focus of initial books in media economics. It is hoped that this book will induce additional avenues of inquiry regarding such issues A Practical Guide to Video and Audio Compression Cliff Wootton, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company Hallyu Tour Guide Book Seoul Metropolitan Government (South Korea), 2015-09-25 we introduce the ways to get the most out of Hallyu Seoul.
