

Personal Response to Poetry

During life's journey, we get to see and experience a lot and these are the things that change us and shape us into what we are today and what we will be in the future. Stanley Kunitz is not an exception to this. In his poem, "The Layers", he says, 'I have walked through many lives, some of them my own, and I am not who I was'. This shows: That he has gone through so much in his life as many have too. Second, not all the experiences directly happened to him, however, he took the chance to learn from them all, whether his or other's experiences and through it all, he has changed as a person.

"The Layers" is a metaphorical analysis of the narrator's life. He admits that his life has been structured in layers that he must undergo one step at a time, where in each phase, he encounters varying pressures that make him a different person. Learning does not seem to end if one is alive. Stanley talks of walking through a wreckage that depicts turmoil and conflict. His struggles gave him the strength to push forward and that developed a resilience in him. Every time he goes through something, he has a belief that he will emerge through successfully.

In another instance, he states, "manic dust of my friends, those who fell along the way, bitterly stings my face". He refers to the dust as a memory of his friend's death that keep coming back to him. This shows the being part of him. As we go through life, there are certain experiences that are too personal and painful to forget. Their effects may not be direct and most times such experiences break us emotionally and mentally as well as giving us mixed and dispersed emotions as he states, "Oh, I have made myself a tribe out of my true affection and my tribe is scattered". Despite the pain he felt and the adversity he went through, he looks at the experience as precious stones on his road of life. Not just the experiences he has gone through, but also the experiences he is about to go through in the near future.

Strength is built from the past and so is the future. For one to be strong and flexible enough to overtake challenges that are ahead, they have to remember what they have been through and where they have come from. The past builds you and Stanley concurs by saying, "When I look behind, as I am compelled to look before I gather my strength to proceed on my journey..." Strength is only gained by accepting what happened, appreciating your breakthrough and learning fr

Leech,2012-09-04 Provides techniques for achieving high scores on the AP Spanish exam and offers two sample tests with answers and explanations The Familiar Essay, Romantic Affect and Metropolitan Culture Simon Peter Hull,2018-06-11

Through close readings of diverse examples by Lamb De Quincey Hazlitt Irving and Poe this book argues that the familiar essay in the Romantic period embodies a quintessentially metropolitan mode of affect The generic traits of the essay astuteness of observation an ambulatory or paratactic movement of thought and an urbane tone of wry or ironic humour all predispose it to the expression of a detached non pathological state of mind This is a mind conditioned by the quickened pace assorted humanity and plenitude of spectacle which characterise urban and urbanised life In making a valuable genre based contribution to scholarship on the importance to Romantic studies of the city and metropolitan culture the traditional concept of Romantic affect is reassessed The book proposes a more complex and varied model than the simple binary one of a feeling reaction to Enlightenment reason Partly enacted within its own formal parameters and partly through its disruptive and genre transcending progeny the essayistic figure the familiar essay articulates a blithe and at times shocking and provocative discourse of an affect or a strategically and often satirical callousness Therefore the overall concept of affect in this period needs to be understood not as a unified entity opposed to Enlightenment reason but a dialogue between concurrent opposing modes played out against a dichotomized geo cultural landscape of the country and the city Essayistic un affect emerges in the end as an apolitical phenomenon a primary vehicle for the essayist s inherent scepticism sometimes enabling outright ridicule and at other times a tentative questioning or probing of both orthodox thought and emerging ideas from the rarefied liberalist sensibility of the Lake poets to the hubristic vanity of the colonial adventurer and from the allure of hedonistic Old World decadence to the proscriptive strictures of moralistic art
