Restoring Pride The Lost Virtue Of Our Age:

Restoring Pride Richard Taylor, 1996 Restoring Pride is elitist in that it acknowledges that some people are better as human beings than others and that they have made themselves so by perfecting their natural talents The idea of the Sermon on the Mount that the poor and the meek are blessed is repudiated Instead Taylor embraces the classical Greek ideal of virtue as personal excellence without any suggestion that everyone is equal in worth The proud setting the rules and standards for themselves are apt to be looked on as unconventional However one invariable rule guides their behavior toward others considerateness The same egalitarian standard applies to their treatment under the law in a democratic society
