your everyday life and craft it into a literary masterpiece Review of Contemporary Fiction ,2004 Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction Gero Bauer,2024-01-11 Explores the emphasis that contemporary novels films and television series place on the present arguing that hope emerges from the potentiality of the here and now rather than the future and as intimately entangled with negotiations of structures of belonging Taking its cue from an understanding of hope as connoting an organizing temporality one which is often presumed to be projecting into a future Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction challenges this understanding arguing that hope emerges in practices of relationality in the present disentangling hope from a necessary correlation with futurity Through close readings of contemporary works including The Road The Walking Dead Cloud Atlas Sense8 The People in the Trees and A Little Life Gero Bauer investigates how these texts explore structures of kinship as creative and affective practices of belonging and care that claim spaces beyond the heterosexual reproductive nuclear family In this context fictional figurations of the child often considered the bearer of the future are of particular interest Through these interventions into definitions of and reflections on fictional manifestations of hope and kinship Bauer s analyses intersect with queer theory new materialism and postcritical approaches to literature and cultural studies moving towards counterintuitively hopeful readings of the present moment Unmaking Love Ashley T. Shelden,2017-01-10 The contemporary novel does more than revise our conception of love it explodes it queers it and makes it unrecognizable Rather than providing union connection and completion love in contemporary fiction destroys the possibility of unity harbors negativity and foregrounds difference Comparing contemporary and modernist depictions of love to delineate critical continuities and innovations Unmaking Love locates queerness in the novelistic strategies of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Hanif Kureishi Alan Hollinghurst and Hari Kunzru In their work queer love becomes more than shorthand for sexual identity It comes to embody thwarted expectations disarticulated organization and unnerving multiplicity In queer love social forms are deformed affective bonds do not bind and social structures threaten to come undone Unmaking Love draws on psychoanalysis and gender and sexuality studies to read love s role in contemporary literature and its relation to queer negativity
