Intellectual Property Rights in a Fair World Trade System Annette Kur, 2011-01-01 Intellectual Property law IP particularly in relation to international trade regimes is increasingly finding itself challenged by rapid developments in the technological and global economic landscapes In its attempt to maintain a responsive legislative system that is interacting successfully with global trade rules IP is having to respond to an increasing number of actors on an international level This book examines the problems associated with this undertaking as well as suggesting possible revisions to the TRIPS agreement that would make it more relevant to the environment in which today's IP mechanisms are operating The overall aim is to find an adequate response to the IP balance dilemma The theme is pursued throughout various topics including a look at what this means in relation to economy in a country like China and also considering how IP is increasingly having to reconcile itself with human rights issues

Inside Indian Schools Vimala

Ramachandran,2018-03-05 After 70 years after independence the tragic reality of Indian schools is that who we are where we live how much we earn and our gender influences the kind of education we will get In this collection of essays the author explores the contours of a school system that is facing a crisis of legitimacy While India aspires to march towards a knowledge driven society and economy millions of young people are left behind Those who can afford march out of government schools only to realize that the private schools are no better The schools they attend leaves them with little knowledge or skill a very low self esteem and a bleak future This book argues that the struggle for equality in education is ultimately a struggle for quality both being two sides of the same coin Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka      Global Encyclopedia of Public
