Students of Color and the Achievement Gap Richard R. Valencia, 2015-03-05 Students of Color and the Achievement Gap is a comprehensive landmark analysis of an incontrovertible racialized reality in U S K 12 public education the relentless achievement gap between low socioeconomic students of color and their economically advantaged White counterparts Award winning author and scholar Richard Valencia provides an authoritative and systemic treatment of the achievement gap focusing on Black and Latino Latina students He examines the societal and educational factors that help to create and maintain the achievement gap by drawing from critical race theory an asset based perspective and a systemic inequality approach By showing how racialized opportunity structures in society and schools ultimately result in racialized patterns of academic achievement in schools Valencia shows how the various indicators of the achievement gap are actually symptoms of the societal and school quality gaps Following each of these concerns Valencia provides a number of reform suggestions that can lead to systemic transformations of K 12 education Students of Color and the Achievement Gap makes a persuasive and well documented case that school success for students of color and the empowerment of their parents can only be fully understood and realized when contextualized within broader political economic and cultural frameworks SWYK on STAAR Reading/Writing Gr. 4, Student Workbook Show What You Know Publishing, 2013-03-01 Assess student knowledge of the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills TEKS for Reading and Writing with two full length Assessments for each subject Questions provide students with the necessary practice needed to achieve academic success on STAAR Chapters on test taking strategies and test anxiety build students confidence and test taking skills Glossaries familiarize students with vocabulary terms and concepts found on state proficiency tests Answers are provided in the Parent Teacher Edition only

Scott, 2018-03-02 Today s public schools represent greater student diversity than ever before in the history of the United States yet pedagogical approaches as mandated by state education agencies and school districts superimpose mainstream curricula and instructional practices which ultimately disadvantage the academic outcomes of the majority minority African American and Hispanic Latino students. Unfortunately, national report findings also heighten the educational crisis that exists for Black and Brown children with regard to reading and writing achievement. As a result, there is a need to deeply explore the relationship between Black and Brown student literacy achievement and educational policy, teacher education program curriculum and assessment. This book seeks to provide some practical insights guided by conceptual and contextual knowledge by understanding how to teach urban African American and Hispanic Latino students by discussing culturally appropriate instructional strategies that have demonstrated success among African American and Hispanic Latino students. This book will showcase successful models for teaching literacy to urban students through a discussion of topics that include 1. increasing literacy achievement and motivation, 2. multicultural literacy practices, and 3. early and elementary literacy instruction.

Differentiated Teacher Evaluation and Professional Learning Mary Lynne Derrington, Jim Brandon, 2019-05-15. This book discusses teacher evaluation and how it can provide the foundations for professional development. The editors and contributors illustrate how teachers with varying levels of expertise, experience, and learning needs can benefit from differentiated evaluation and professional development designed to help them reach their full potential. The book examines various aspects of differentiation, including levels of experience from pre-service to veteran, practices of school principals as they supervise and evaluate staff, and wider education policies that can support or hinder differentiation. Providing fascinating insights into how teacher evaluation policies can support practice in a variety of contexts, this timely collection will be of interest and value to students and scholars of teacher evaluation and professional development.

The Mismeasure of Education Jim Horn, Denise Wilburn, 2013-07-01. With new student assessments and teacher evaluation schemes in the planning or early implementation phases, this book takes a step back to examine the ideological and historical grounding, potential benefits, scholarly evidence, and ethical basis for the new generation of test based accountability measures After providing the political and cultural contexts for the rise of the testing accountability movement in the 1960s that culminated almost forty years later in No Child Left Behind and Race to the Top this book then moves on to provide a policy history and social policy analysis of value added testing in Tennessee that is framed around questions of power relations winners and losers In examining the issues and exercise of power that are sustained in the long standing policy of standardized testing in schools this work provides a big picture perspective on assessment practices over time in the U S by examining the rise of value added assessment in Tennessee a fine grained and contemporary case is provided within that larger context The last half of the book provides a detailed survey of the research based critiques of value added methodology while detailing an aggressive marketing campaign to make value added modeling VAM a central component of reform strategies following NCLB The last chapter and epilogue place the continuation of test based accountability practices within the context of an emerging pushback against privatization high stakes testing and other education reforms This book will be useful to a wide audience including teachers parents school leaders policymakers researchers and students of educational history policy and politics SWYK on STAAR
