Norah McGuinness Retrospective Exhibition Trinity College 1968:

Norah McGuinness Norah Allison McGuinness, Trinity College (Dublin, Ireland). Library, 1968 The Cambridge Companion to Irish Modernism Joe Cleary, 2014-08-11 The story of Irish modernism constitutes a remarkable chapter in the movement's history. This volume serves as an incisive and accessible overview of that brilliant period in which Irish artists not only helped to create a distinctive nationalist literature but also changed the face of European and anglophone culture. This Companion surveys developments in modernist poetry, drama, fiction, and the visual arts. Early innovators such as Oscar Wilde, George Bernard Shaw, Jack B. Yeats, and James Joyce, as well as late modernists including Elizabeth Bowen, Samuel Beckett, Flann O'Brien, Mairéad Ní Cadhain, and Francis Bacon, all appear here. Significantly, however, this volume ranges beyond such iconic figures to open up new ground with chapters on Irish women modernists, Irish American modernism, Irish language modernism, and the critical reception of modernism in Ireland.

"Women's Contributions to Visual Culture, 1918-1939" Karen E. Brown, 2017-07-05 An exploration of women's contributions to visual culture in major urban centres between the wars 1918-1939, this collection sheds new light on women's relationships with the processes of modernism and modernization. Women's work in a variety of mediums is explored, including design, print illustration, murals, poster art, and costume design, as well as more conventional forms of painting and sculpture. International in scope, the volume discusses artists and exhibitions from the United Kingdom, Greece, Mexico, France, Ireland, and the United States. The contributors place a strong emphasis on archival research yet each addresses contemporary concerns in feminist art history. By focusing on a very specific time period, the essays place a central concern on the history and theory of art and gender and are united by their coherent focus on women's role in the agency and mediation of artistic production in the interwar period.

"The Yeats Circle, Verbal and Visual Relations in Ireland, 1880-1939" Karen E. Brown, 2017-07-05 Focusing on W. B. Yeats's ideal of mutual support between the arts, Karen Brown sheds new light on how collaborations and differences between members of the Yeats family circle contributed to the metamorphosis of the Irish Cultural Revival into Irish Modernism. Making use of primary materials and fresh archival evidence, Brown delves into a variety of media, including embroidery, print illustration, theatre costume design, poetry, and painting. Tracing the artistic relationships and outcome of W. B. Yeats's vision through five case studies, Brown explores the poet's early engagement with artistic tradition, contributions to the Dun Emer and Cuala Industries, collaboration between W. B. Yeats and Norah McGuinness, analysis of Thomas MacGreevy's pictorial poetry, and a study of literary influence and debt between Jack Yeats and Samuel Beckett. Having undertaken extensive archival research relating to word and image studies, Brown considers her findings in historical context with particular emphasis on questions of art and gender, and art and national identity. Interdisciplinary, this volume is one of the first full-length studies of the fraternal arts surrounding W. B. Yeats. It represents an important contribution to word and image studies and to debates surrounding Irish Cultural Revival and the formation of Irish Modernism.

The Yeats Circle, Verbal and Visual Relations in Ireland,

1880-1939 Karen E. Brown, 2011 Focusing on W B Yeats's ideal of mutual support between the arts and on the cultural production of the Yeats circle members Karen Brown explores the artistic relationships and outcome of Yeats's vision in five case studies In so doing the author makes use of primary materials and fresh archival evidence and delves into a variety of media including embroidery print illustration theatre costume design poetry and painting A Shared Legacy Fintan Cullen, 2017-07-05 A Shared Legacy Essays on Irish and Scottish Art and Visual Culture brings together for the first time a unique selection of new research by leading Irish Scottish English and North American scholars to explore the varying ways in which the visual can operate within the context of two countries with related experiences of lost statehood yet retained nationhood Covering a span of three centuries this skilfully crafted book takes the discussion of Irish and Scottish art beyond the often isolationist approach adopted in the past dealing directly with issues of nationality in a wider context The authors identify national concerns through a range of themes race class union and assimilation or nationalism and internationalism and while many of the essays focus on paintings sculpture prints and watercolours others consider a wider notion of visual culture by investigating photography magic lantern slides and the home arts of embroidery and textiles Irish Women Artists, 1987 The Modern Art Collection Catalogue Trinity College (Dublin, Ireland), 1989 Great Irish Artists S. B. Kennedy, 1997 Great Irish Artists introduces fifteen of Ireland's most interesting painters and reproduces a selection of their work It includes the undeniably great artists such as Jack B Yeats while also presenting those names not so widely recognised such as Norah McGuinness and Colin Middleton as well as popular painters such as Sean Keating Paul Henry and Sir William Orpen Presented chronologically from Sir John Lavery to Louis le Brocquy each artist is introduced with a concise biography followed by a discussion of the individual works Written in a clear easy to read style and accompanied by over sixty colour reproductions these illuminating short essays encourage the viewer to look at some of the finest Irish art alongside the ideas and aims of those who created it Straightforward and inspiring this beautiful book presents an invaluable introduction to a visual tradition that deserves to be better known A Free Spirit Kenneth McConkey, 1990 Study of the history and development of the visual arts in Ireland during this period including details of some 52 artists with examples of their work Dictionary of Irish Artists Theo Snoddy, 1996 This comprehensive major reference work under development for more than twenty five years is a continuation of W G Strickland's A Dictionary of Irish Artists first published in 1913 This new volume contains entries for some 500 artists including such important practitioners as Paul Henry Evie Hone Mainie Jellett Sir John Lavery Sir William Orpen Jack B Yeats and his father John Butler Yeats Staging Beckett in Ireland and Northern Ireland, 2016-06-30 This is the first full length study to focus on the staging of Samuel Beckett's drama in Ireland and Northern Ireland Beckett's relationship with his native land was a complex one but the importance of his drama as a creative force both historically and in contemporary practice in Ireland and Northern Ireland cannot be underestimated Drawing on previously unpublished archival materials and re-examining familiar narratives this volume traces the history of Beckett's drama at Dublin's Abbey and Gate Theatres as well as bringing to light unexamined and little known productions such as those performed in the Irish language Druid Theatre Company's productions and those of Dublin's Focus Theatre. Leading scholars in Beckett studies and in Irish drama including Anna McMullan and Anthony Roche and renowned interpreters of Beckett's dramatic work such as Barry McGovern explore Beckett's drama within the context of Irish creative theatrical practice and heritage and analyse its legacies. As with its companion volume Staging Beckett in Great Britain production analyses are underpinned by a consideration of the political, economic and cultural contexts. Readers are invited to experience Beckett's drama as resonating in new ways through theatre practice against the complex and connected histories of Ireland north and south.
