Handbook of Research on Strategic Communication, Leadership, and Conflict Management in Modern Organizations Normore, Anthony, Javidi, Mitch, Long, Larry, 2019-03-08 As communication and leadership skills are both essential for personal and organizational success new approaches and management styles are continuously being sought. Emerging technologies, automation, opportunities, and a diverse workforce are just a few of the challenges business professionals must be prepared for in today's workplace environment. The Handbook of Research on Strategic Communication, Leadership, and Conflict Management in Modern Organizations provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of managing and solving conflicts and introduces updated approaches for refining communication and leadership skills. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as emotional intelligence, organizational crises, and virtual team management, this book is ideally designed for professionals, leaders, managers, and human resource specialists seeking current research on developing the skills and consciousness needed to effectively communicate, negotiate, and collaborate in diverse organizations.

Child Development From Birth to 8 Years Amanda Thomas, Alyson Lewis, 2022-11-23 An understanding of Child Development is necessary for early childhood students as it underpins all early years practice and curricula. This book provides students with an in-depth understanding of the research theory and current practice supporting them through a complex area. Offering a fresh take, this book examines child development through a range of disciplines including psychology, education, sociology, anthropology, and philosophy. Chapters are structured to support readers in understanding complex theory with key features such as case studies which put theory into practice, reflective questions to encourage critical thinking, chapter summaries, further reading, and more. Amanda Thomas is Senior Lecturer in Education at University of South Wales. Alyson Lewis is Lecturer in Education Development at Cardiff University.

Bhima's Mystical Quest Petrus Suparyanto, 2019 This research based on the Jasadipoeran S rat D waruci, the Ki Nartosabdan D waruci play, and the dhalangs interpretation of the D waruci play they performed. Using three divisions of the horizontal tripartite of the D waruci play and of the vertical tripartite of the wayang kulit cosmology together with the Javanese concepts of lair batin and rasa, the examination of Bhima's quest reveals three stages of the Javanese spiritual growth which can be systematically summarized as the purification of the corporeal feelings, the purification of the emotional feelings, and the purification of the intuitive feelings which culminates in the union with God, the so-called manunggaling kawula Gusti.

Research Anthology on Managing Crisis and Risk Communications Management Association, Information Resources, 2022-07-01 In times of crisis it is crucial that information is disseminated quickly and accurately to the appropriate channels. challenges of managing crisis and risk communications is required to ensure organizations are prepared The Research Anthology on Managing Crisis and Risk Communications discusses strategies and tactics to effectively manage communication in times of crisis and considers the difficulties associated with maintaining a clear line of information The book also provides an overview of the potential future directions for this field to improve communications moving forward Covering key topics such as misinformation technology leadership and human health this major reference work is ideal for managers business owners organization leaders industry professionals government officials policymakers researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

The Mosaic of Atonement Joshua M. McNall, 2019-08-27 The Mosaic of Atonement offers a fresh and integrated approach to historic models of atonement While modern treatments of the doctrine have tended toward either a defensive hierarchy in which one model is singled out as most important or a disconnected plurality in which multiple images are affirmed but with no order of arrangement this book argues for a reintegration of four famous pieces of atonement doctrine through the governing image of Christ shaped mosaic Unlike a photograph in which tiny pixels present a seamless blending of color and shape a mosaic allows each piece to retain its recognizable particularity while also integrating them in the service of a single larger image If one stands close one can identify individual squares of glass or tile that compose the greater picture And if one steps back there is the larger picture to be admired Yet in the great mosaics of age old Christian churches the goal is not for viewers to construct the image as in a puzzle but to appreciate it So too with this mosaic of atonement doctrine While no one model is set above or against the others the book notes particular ways in which the pieces the feet heart head and hands mutually support one another to form a more holistic vision of Christ s work This is my body Jesus said to his followers and by reintegrating these oft dismembered aspects of atonement we will note fresh ways in which it was given for us

Gregory of Nyssa: In Canticum Canticorum Giulio Maspero, Miguel Brugarolas, Ilaria Vigorelli, 2018-08-07 Taken together Gregory of Nyssa s XV Homilies In Canticum Canticorum are at the same time as if in unison a work of spiritual exegetical and theological doctrine The wide spectrum of the themes present in them have prompted a great interest in this work not only among scholars of patristics or theology but also among those interested in biblical interpretation ancient rhetoric or Christian mystical doctrine These Proceedings present the results of the 13th International Colloquium on Gregory of Nyssa Rome 17-20 September 2014 a systematic commentary of Gregory s In Canticum from a broad perspective in the form of sixteen papers and a selection of fourteen short essays devoted to various issues that represent a valuable set of supporting studies

Beyond Every Child Matters Catherine Simon, 2016-12-01 The United Kingdom's Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition government 2010-15 was responsible for some of the most radical changes to education policy for decades Beyond Every Child Matters provides a critical overview of developments in education and social welfare policy in the years following the 2010 general election It explores the conceptual background of a Big Society used to frame Coalition policy and shows how the underlying spectre of neoliberalism both creates issues for policy attention and undermines ensuing policy solutions This book charts those changes which have impacted upon education and schooling in England and Wales and is divided into two parts Part I analyses Conservative philosophical thought and policy discussions that underpin the social welfare and education policies introduced under the Conservative led coalition government of 2010-15 and the subsequent Conservative administration since 2015 Part II looks at these policies in detail and concludes with a discussion of possible alternative policy approaches Set against a backdrop of unprecedented economic crisis and austerity Beyond Every Child Matters will be of interest to students of education and welfare policy academics and researchers

Digital Heritage Reconstruction Using Super-resolution and Inpainting Milind G. Padalkar, Manjunath V. Joshi, 2016-12-12 Heritage sites across the world have witnessed a number of natural calamities sabotage and damage from visitors resulting in their present ruined condition Many sites are now restricted to reduce the risk of further damage Yet these masterpieces are significant cultural icons and critical markers of past civilizations that future generations need to see A digitally reconstructed heritage site could diminish further harm by using immersive navigation or walkthrough systems for virtual environments An exciting key element for the viewer is observing fine details of the historic work and viewing monuments in their undamaged form This book presents image super resolution methods and techniques for automatically detecting and inpainting damaged regions in heritage monuments in order to provide an enhanced visual experience The book presents techniques to obtain higher resolution photographs of the digitally reconstructed monuments and the resulting images can serve as input to immersive walkthrough systems It begins with the discussion of two novel techniques for image super resolution and an approach for inpainting a user supplied region in the given image followed by a technique to simultaneously perform super resolution and inpainting of given missing regions It then introduces a method for automatically detecting and repairing the damage to dominant facial regions in statues followed by a few approaches for automatic crack repair in images of heritage scenes This book is a giant step toward ensuring that the iconic sites of our past are always available and will never be truly lost

Debugging Game History Henry Lowood, Raiford Guins, 2024-02-06 Essays discuss the terminology etymology and history of key terms offering a foundation for critical historical studies of games Even as the field of game studies has flourished critical historical studies of games have lagged behind other areas of research Histories have generally been fact by fact chronicles fundamental terms of game design and development technology and play have rarely been examined in the context of their historical etymological and conceptual underpinnings This volume attempts to debug the flawed historiography of video games It offers original essays on key concepts in game studies arranged as in a lexicon from Amusement Arcade to Embodiment and Game Art to Simulation and World Building Written by scholars and practitioners from a variety of disciplines including game development curatorship media archaeology cultural studies and technology studies the essays offer a series of distinctive critical takes on historical topics The majority of essays look at game history from the outside in some take deep dives into the histories of play and simulation to provide context for the development of electronic and digital games others take on such technological components of games as code and audio Not all essays are history or historical etymology there is an analysis of game design and a discussion of intellectual property but they nonetheless raise questions for historians to consider Taken together the essays offer a foundation for the emerging study of game history Contributors Marcelo Aranda Brooke Belisle Caetlin Benson Allott Stephanie Boluk Jennifer deWinter J P Dyson Kate Edwards Mary Flanagan Jacob Gaboury William Gibbons Raiford Guins Erkki Huhtamo Don Ihde Jon Ippolito Katherine Isbister Mikael Jakobsson Steven E Jones Jesper Juul Eric Kaltman Matthew G Kirschenbaum Carly A Kocurek Peter Krapp Patrick LeMieux Henry Lowood Esther MacCallum Stewart Ken S McAllister Nick Monfort David Myers James Newman Jenna Ng Michael Nitsche Laine Nooney Hector Postigo Jas Purewal Rene H Reynolds Judd Ethan Ruggill Marie Laure Ryan Katie Salen Tekinba Anastasia Salter Mark Sample Bobby Schweizer John Sharp Miguel Sicart Rebecca Elisabeth Skinner Melanie Swalwell David Thomas Samuel Tobin Emma Witkowski Mark J P Wolf

HC 287 - Government Motoring

Agencies - the User Perspective Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee, 2014-10-07 The Government's motoring agencies are undergoing reorganisation and are introducing digital services both changes have potential to bring welcome improvements The Government has a mixed approach to organisational change in the agencies with different emphasis on efficiency savings restructuring and private sector involvement across the agencies It needs to do more to explain the future direction for all the motoring agencies and how it will create a more unified service The agencies could do more to recognise and respond to the needs of business users There are a number of specific areas that require action by the Government and its motoring agencies the driver Certificate of Professional Competence may not be delivering all the benefits expected of it and the Government should negotiate changes at a European level the agencies need to have effective assisted digital strategies in place to help those who cannot or are unwilling to use the internet to access services the agencies need to work with the Government Digital Service and others to address the problem of misleading copycat websites the DVLA needs to do more to explain how it is required to share personal data with private parking companies and the safeguards that are in place to protect such data the DVLA needs to adjust its fees to ensure costs are covered and do more to explain its calculations and data sharing needs to be effective if revenue collection action on safety and work by enforcement agencies are to be effective and new services need to be planned with data sharing in mind The
