

From the bestselling author of Cutting for Stone

The background of the book cover is a painting of a tropical landscape. In the foreground, there is a body of water with a small boat. The middle ground features a dense line of palm trees and other tropical vegetation. The background shows a hazy, distant landscape. The overall color palette is dominated by greens, blues, and earthy tones.

Pompous Literary Fiction:

Literary Fiction Geir Farnen, 2014-01-30 Insofar as literary theory has addressed the issue of literature as a means of communication and the function of literary fiction opinions have been sharply divided indicating that the elementary foundations of literary theory and criticism still need clarifying Many of the classical problems that literary theory has been grappling with from Aristotle to our time are still waiting for a satisfactory solution Based on a new cognitive model of literature as communication Farnen systematically explains how literary fiction works providing new solutions to a wide range of literary issues like intention function evaluation delimitation of the literary work as such fictionality suspense and the roles of author and narrator along with such narratological problems as voice point of view and duration Covering a wide range of literary issues central to literary theory offering new theories while also summarising the field as it stands Literary Fiction will be a valuable guide and resource for students and scholars of the theory of literature Live Literature Ellen Wiles, 2021-05-21 This ground breaking book explores the phenomenal growth of live literature in the digitalizing 21st century Wiles asks why literary events appeal and matter to people and how they can transform the ways in which fiction is received and valued Readers are immersed in the experience of two contrasting events a major literary festival and an intimate LGBTQ salon Evocative scenes and observations are interwoven with sharp critical analysis and entertaining conversations with well known author performers reader audiences producers critics and booksellers Wiles's experiential literary ethnography represents an innovative and vital contribution not just to literary research but to research into the value of cultural experience across art forms This book probes intersections between readers and audiences writers and performers texts and events bodies and memories and curation and reception It addresses key literary debates from cultural appropriation to diversity in publishing the effects of social media and the quest for authenticity It will engage a broad audience from academics and producers to writers and audiences The Fictional Minds of Modernism Ricardo Miguel-Alfonso, 2020-02-20 Challenging the notion that modernism is marked by an inward turn a configuration of the individual as distinct from the world this collection delineates the relationship between the mind and material and social systems rethinking our understanding of modernism's representation of cognitive and affective processes Through analysis of a variety of international novels short stories and films all published roughly between 1890 and 1945 the contributors to this collection demonstrate that the so called inward turn of modernist narratives in fact reflects the necessary interaction between mind self and world that constitutes knowledge and therefore precludes any radical split between these categories The essays examine the cognitive value of modernist narrative showing how the perception of objects and of other people is a relational activity that requires an awareness of the constant flux of reality The Fictional Minds of Modernism explores how modernist narratives offer insights into the real historical world not as a mere object of contemplation but as an object of knowledge thus bridging the gap between classical narratology and modernist experimentation The Routledge

Companion to Twenty-First Century Literary Fiction Daniel O'Gorman, Robert Eaglestone, 2019-01-15 The study of contemporary fiction is a fascinating yet challenging one Contemporary fiction has immediate relevance to popular culture the news scholarly organizations and education where it is found on the syllabus in schools and universities but it also offers challenges What is contemporary How do we track cultural shifts and changes The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction takes on this challenge mapping key literary trends from the year 2000 onwards as the landscape of our century continues to take shape around us A significant and central intervention into contemporary literature this Companion offers essential coverage of writers who have risen to prominence since then such as Hari Kunzru Jennifer Egan David Mitchell Jonathan Lethem Ali Smith A L Kennedy Hilary Mantel Marilynne Robinson and Colson Whitehead Thirty eight essays by leading and emerging international scholars cover topics such as Identity including race sexuality class and religion in the twenty first century The impact of technology terrorism activism and the global economy on the modern world and modern literature The form and format of twenty first century literary fiction including analysis of established genres such as the pastoral graphic novels and comedic writing and how these have been adapted in recent years Accessible to experts students and general readers The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of contemporary literature Heroes and Heroines of Fiction William Shepard WALSH, 1914 Regenerating the Novel James J. Miracky, 2013-09-13 In this exploration of the most innovative and iconoclastic modernist fiction James J Miracky studies the ways in which cultural forces and discourses of gender inflect the practice and theory of four British novelists Virginia Woolf E M Forster May Sinclair and D H Lawrence Building on analyses of gender theory and formal innovation in Virginia Woolf s novels this book examines Forster s queered use of fantasy Sinclair s representation of manly genius in both male and female streams of consciousness and Lawrence s quest for the novel of phallic consciousness Reading each author s fiction alongside his or her theoretical writing Miracky provides four diverse examples of how literary modernism wrestled with the gender crisis of the early twentieth century Contemporary Fiction, Celebrity Culture, and the Market for Modernism Carey Mickalites, 2022-01-13 Arguing that contemporary celebrity authors like Zadie Smith Ian McEwan Martin Amis Kazuo Ishiguro Salman Rushdie Eimear McBride and Anna Burns position their work and public personae within a received modernist canon to claim and monetize its cultural capital in the lucrative market for literary fiction this book also shows how the corporate conditions of marketing and branding have redefined older models of literary influence and innovation It contributes to a growing body of criticism focused on contemporary literature as a field in which the formal and stylistic experimentation that came to define a canon of early 20th century modernism has been renewed contested and revised Other critics have celebrated these renewals variously arguing that contemporary literature picks up on modernism s unfinished aesthetic revolutions in ways that have expanded the imaginative possibilities for fiction and revived questions of literary autonomy in the wake of postmodern nihilism While this is a compelling thesis and one that rightly questions an artificial and problematic periodization that still lingers in academic criticism those approaches generally fail to address the material conditions that structure literary production and the generation of cultural capital whether in the historical development of modernism or its contemporary permutations This book addresses this absence by proposing a materialist history of modernism's afterlives

Mujong (The Heartless) Kwang-su Yi, 2010-03-31 Yi Kwang-su 1892-1950 was one of the pioneers of modern Korean literature When the serialization of Mujong The Heartless began in 1917 it was an immediate sensation and it occupies a prominent place in the Korean literary canon The Heartless is the story of a love triangle among three youths during the Japanese occupation Yi Hyung-sik is a young man in his mid twenties who is teaching English at a middle school in Seoul Brilliant but also shy and indecisive he is torn between two women Kim Sun-hyung is from a wealthy Christian family she has just graduated from a modern Western style school and is planning on continuing her studies in the United States Pak Yung-chae is a musically gifted young woman who was raised in a traditional Confucian manner due to family misfortune she has become a kisaeng but remains devoted to Hyung-sik whom she knew as a child The Heartless goes beyond the level of romantic melodrama and uses these characters to depict Korea's struggles with modern culture and national identity A long critical introduction discusses Yi Kwang-su's life and work from his birth in 1892 to the publication of his first novel The Heartless in 1917 It contains in depth analyses of the novel Yi Kwang-su's literary theory and early short stories
