Red Dust In Her Veins Women Of The Pilbara:

Red Dust in Her Veins Lisa Holland-McNair, Erica Smyth, Melva Stone, 2007 Prominent Women of the WA s Pilbara region and their stories Breaking the Gas Ceiling Rebecca Ponton, 2019 The international petroleum industry has long been known the world over as a good old boys club and nowhere is the oil and gas industry s gender imbalance more apparent than offshore The untold story shared in these pages is about the women who have been among the first to inhabit this world and whose stories previously have been a missing part of the history of the industry As a CEO I believe it is imperative for today s generation of young women to realize there is a seat for them in the boards of oil gas companies as the gas ceiling can be broken quicker and easier than before Reading this book they will think about these women who have gone before them and broken down those barriers in order to give them new opportunities Maria Moraeus Hanssen CEO DEA Deutsche Erdoel AG My belief is that diversity is key to both creativity and solid long term business results Even in a country like Norway where professional gender diversity is greater than in any other country I have had interactions with we have an underrepresentation of women in top management positions I would therefore like to express my appreciation to Rebecca Ponton for keeping this important subject on the agenda by presenting to us positive impressive and at the same time obtainable role models Grethe K Moen CEO and President Petoro AS As the industry now is more complex and faces more uncertainty women will be more important contributors especially in management and communication Women could be just what is needed Karen Sund Founder Sund Energy AS Everyone needs role models and role models that look like you are even better For women the oil and gas industry has historically been pretty thin on role models for young women to look up to Rebecca Ponton has provided an outstanding compilation of role models for all women who aspire to success in one of the most important industries of modern times Dave Payne Chevron VP Drilling Completions Learn more at www.BreakingTheGlassCeiling.com From the World Voices Series at Modern History Press www.ModernHistoryPress.com Red Dust In Her Veins , 2012 The twelve women interviewed in this book all share a strong attachment to the physical and spiritual beauty of the Pilbara in the northwest of Western Australia A common bond between the four indigenous and eight non indigenous women whose stories we have read is not only the love of the landscape but also the various difficulties they have faced and the opportunities they have created in this remote and awe inspiring region Some went in search of adventure others to escape from abusive relationships Some followed their partners careers while others tackled problems of cultural dispossession and gender identity Whatever the circumstances their compelling accounts of life in the Pilbara illustrate the resilience courage and good humour of twelve inspirational women These stories and the stunning photographs of the landscape that accompany them will resonate with anyone who has visited the region or is contemplating going bush and will live forever in the hearts of those dreaming of a life less ordinary Popular Mechanics , 1972-11 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it s practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Coming Together on Country Lisa Holland,2021-12-30 A Girl from Belele Sue Gordon,Lisa Holland,2025-03 It s the 1940s in outback Australia Children play in the red dirt that their family has called home for the past 50 000 years One child Susie a snotty nosed sandy blonde hair and light skinned four year old plays with her extend family under the watchful eye of her mum Molly Her carefree life suddenly crashes down thanks to A O Neville and she is forcible removed and sent to Sister Kate s Home for Orphans She is now officially what in later years will be known as one of The Stolen Generation She would not see her mum for another 30 years and the path laid before her by society was one of domestic servitude But there was a catch Everyone underestimated her and she went on the prove them all wrong Dr Gordon is a remarkable woman and a trailblazer for many Aboriginal men and women in Australia Some of her achievements include Army The first Aboriginal person in WA to head a government department she was the Commissioner for Aboriginal Planning Chair of Taskforce NT The first Aboriginal person to be appointed a Magistrate in the Children s Court of WA The Chair of many national Boards including the Gordon Inquiry into family violence and child abuse in WA Aboriginal communities On the first ATSIC Board and first Chair of the National Indigenous Council Completed a Bachelor of Laws at UWA and received Honorary Degree of Doctor of Letters from UWA The book follows Dr Gordon s life from birth through to her 80th birthday this year It is not a book about being a victim or blaming what was an intrinsically flawed system This is a story of courage determination hardships loss and joy It is a story of triumph over unimaginable adversity
