Whispers on the Color Line Gary Alan Fine, Patricia A. Turner, 2023-09-01 Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys and candy teenagers share stories about sex drugs and rock and roll young professionals commiserate over the hazards of the work world These stories address aspects of life about which we receive mixed or ambiguous messages Given that matters relevant to race remain confused and divisive in many corridors of American society it is not surprising that rumors and legends that reflect racial misunderstanding and mistrust frequently circulate Whispers on the Color Line focuses on a wide array of tales told in black and white communities across America Topics run the gamut from alleged governmental conspiracies possible food tampering gang violence and the sex lives of celebrities Such beliefs travel by word of mouth in print and increasingly over the Internet In many instances these stories reflect the tenacious level of racial misunderstanding that continues to vex efforts to foster racial harmony creating separate racialized pools of knowledge The authors have spent over twenty years collecting and analyzing rumors and contemporary legends from the ever durable Kentucky Fried Rat cycle to persistent beliefs about athletic footwear manufacturers and their support for white supremacist regimes These implausible stories serve many purposes they assuage anxieties entertain friends increase our sense of control all without directly proclaiming our own attitudes Fine and Turner consider how these tales reflect attitudes that blacks and whites have both about each other and about the world they face In an engaging and penetrating narrative they brilliantly demonstrate how by transforming unacceptable impulses into a narrative that is claimed to have actually happened we are able to express the inexpressible Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys a antics of ten of Louisiana's high profile legal celebrities on both sides of the courtroom are the focus of this fascinating book. Editor S L Alexander brings together communications and legal experts Jennifer John Block, Erin Bremer, Lyn Koppel, Glenn Watts and Charles Zewe to delve into the legal foibles and follies that plague Louisiana's legal system. After an introduction to the intricacies of Louisiana's courtroom customs, each chapter provides a concise history of a colorful personality from former four term governor and convicted felon Edwin Edwards's outlandish antics to wealthy entrepreneur Chicken King Al Copeland's many peccadilloes. Included are characters from both sides of the law such as TV reporter Richard Angelico, Jefferson Parish Sheriff Harry Lee known as the Chinese Cowboy, DA Harry Connick Sr known as much for his singing as his courtroom performances and many more. Courtroom Carnival: Famous New Orleans Trials presents a fascinating and educational read from the overview of what makes the courtrooms of Louisiana so unique to the exposés of the bizarre characters on both sides of the bench.

Courtroom Carnival S. L. Alexander, 2011-10-13 The outrageous
