Recollections of a Southern Matron and a New England Bride Caroline Howard Gilman, 1859 Recollections of a New England Bride and of a Southern Matron Caroline Howard Gilman, 2025-05-22 Recollections of a New England Bride and of a Southern Matron offers a captivating glimpse into the lives of women in 19th century America Through personal anecdotes and keen observations Caroline Howard Gilman contrasts the experiences of a newlywed in New England with those of a matron in the South This work provides invaluable insights into the social customs domestic expectations and regional differences that shaped women's roles during this transformative period Gilman's narrative combines personal reflections with broader social commentary making it a valuable resource for understanding the nuances of American society and the evolving roles of women in the antebellum era A compelling read for anyone interested in women's history social history and the cultural landscape of 19th century America This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

Recollections of a New England Bride and of a Southern Matron Caroline Howard Gilman, 1852 Fictionalized autobiographical account of the habits and manners of Southerners The preface to the book reads Every part except the love passages is founded in events of actual occurrence Caroline Howard was born in Boston in 1794 After both parents died Caroline went to live with relatives in various towns across Massachusetts She married Reverend Samuel Gilman in 1819 and the newlyweds moved to Charleston South Carolina where Mr Gilman had accepted the pastorate of the Unitarian Church In 1832 Caroline Gilman began publishing the Rose Bud a children's magazine The Rose Bud grew to national prominence and soon became an adult publication renamed the Southern Rose which included works by prominent authors such as Harriet Martineau and Nathaniel Hawthorne In addition to her work as an editor she authored novels poetry and memoirs She died in Washington D C in 1888 Recollections of a Southern Matron 1836 is a companion to Gilman s earlier novel Recollections of a Housekeeper 1835 In each work Gilman fictionalizes her observations about a region s culture and women s daily life Gilman insists Recollections of a Southern Matron is based on fact with the exception of the love story between Anna and Arthur Each chapter focuses on some important aspect of southern family life the slaves faithfulness white perceptions of slave superstitions southern education religion and funerals and the courtship of southern gentry
