two women in two different eras who both wanted to become farmers Nicola Chester will come to be seen as a Nan Shepherd of our time Nick Acheson author of The Meaning of Geese This is the story of Miss White a woman who lived in the author's village 80 years ago a pioneer who realised her ambition to become a farmer during the Second World War and how she worked to become accepted within this community Nicola Chester too dreamed of becoming a farmer but working with horses was the only path open to her Was it easier for women to become farmers in the 1940s than it is now Moving between Nicola's own attempts to work outdoors and Miss White's desire to farm a generation earlier Nicola explores the parallels between their lives and the differences Miss White buys a derelict farm and begins to renovate and modernize it As ghost barn owls flit between these two worlds Nicola draws connections with farming and rural life in both times from the role of women in rural communities in the modern day to Miss White's experience in the 1940s And how those farming modernizations have left the modern day with both a denuded landscape and farming community and a disconnect from nature Increasingly Nicola's research into past and present interlinks and illuminates her own battles to raise awareness of rural communities outdoor work and the ongoing loss of farmland birds that were so familiar to Miss White An absolutely fascinating insight into women and farming Nicola Chester really knows how to bring the past alive Claire Fuller author of The Memory of Animals On Gallows Down Nicola Chester,2021-10-07 It's ever so good Political passionate one that ripples and undulates with protest change hope and the search for home From the girl catching the eye of the peace women of Greenham Common to the young woman protesting the loss of ancient and beloved trees and as a mother raising a family in a farm cottage in the shadow of grand country estates this is the story of how Nicola Chester came to write as a means of protest The story of how she discovered the rich seam of resistance that runs through her village of Newbury and its people from the English Civil War to the Swing Riots and the battle against the Newbury Bypass And the story of the hope she finds in the rewilding of Greenham Common after the military left the stories told by the landscapes of Watership Down the gallows perched high on Inkpen Beacon and Highclere Castle the setting of Downton Abbey Nature is indelibly linked to belonging for Nicola She charts her story through the walks she takes with her children across the chalk hills of the North Wessex Downs though the song of the nightingale and the red kites fieldfares skylarks and lapwings that accompany her the badger cubs she watches at night the velvety mole she discovers in her garden and the cuckoo whose return she awaits On Gallows Down tells of how Nicola came to realize that it is she who can decide where she belongs for home is a place in nature and imagination which must be protected through words and actions We are writing for our very lives and for those wild lives we share this one lonely planet with Nicola Chester A Private Sort of Life Bridget MacCaskill,2002 For those who wish to know more about the way of life of otters this book presents an intimate account of an extended otter family My Little Book of River Otters Hope Irvin Marston,1998 A pair of river otters care for their young and watch them grow and learn Otters Adrienne Mason,2003-03-01 Learn about otter habitats how otters protect themselves and more in this
