The Beginner's Guide to Candy Making Elizabeth LaBau, 2022-04-19. Learn to make your own sweet, gorgeous, and delicious candies with The Beginner's Guide to Candy Making: Recipes on the Move in Early Modern England and British North America. Hillary Nunn, 2025-10-01. Using feminist and ecocritical approaches alongside recent historical work on early modern trade and commerce, this volume focuses on early modern manuscripts whose travels can be traced from one location to another. It illustrates how recipes came to blend newly encountered ingredients and practices with long-established healthcare methods. In the process, it offers attention to both the English countryside and the American colonies to expand what is often a London-centered view of English healthcare. Tracing the circulation of women's domestic knowledge and considering the availability of ingredients, this work shows how mobility brought new methods and materials to home healthcare, which in turn influenced how women and their families envisioned their relationships to their environment, their bodies, and their nation.

The Maker Cookbook Cindy Wall, Lynn Pawloski, 2014-08-28. The Maker Movement is hot, and librarians are eager to participate. Even if you feel restricted by budget, staff, or space, this step-by-step guide will help you turn your library into a creativity center. The Maker Movement is sweeping the nation because it is creative, educational, and a lot of fun. Nonetheless, some librarians have hesitated to incorporate the movement into their programming because their libraries do not have dedicated makerspaces. If that describes you, then take heart. Written by librarians for librarians, this cookbook proves that every library is already a MakerPlace and provides you with recipes to make your library come alive with creativity. Easy-to-use step-by-step guidance helps you create engaging K-8 programs in science and technology, arts and crafts, and home skills that are perfect for the library setting. The menu of ideas is broken into four types of programming: Appetizers add a taste of the Maker movement to existing library programs; Entrees present full programs for a lengthy one-day event or a short series; Side Dishes are programs you can use if you have limited staff, budget, space, or any combination of those; Desserts are low-tech programs suitable for young children. Each recipe includes extensions, variations, and curriculum tie-ins that give you even more ways to present the program ideas, whether to a different audience or as part of other related activities. Programs that involve creating a Balloon Zip Line, a Zen Garden, or a Maker Marketplace will delight library users and generate activity and
