Reciprocal Program Ontario 2014:

Narrative Inquiry into Reciprocal Learning Between Canada-China Sister Schools Yuhua Bu, 2021-01-29 This edited volume explores how Chinese school based educators learn from others and attain awareness in dialogue with the world in an era of increasing globalization and information exchange Minzhu Primary School in Shanghai China and Bay Street School in Toronto Canada have been connected as sister schools of cross cultural exchange since 2008 Together they have explored ways to reciprocally learn in a cross cultural partnership while remaining grounded in their home culture and language In this book chapter authors examine how Chinese school based educators view themselves understand others and grow and develop as a consequence of a decade of cross cultural reciprocal learning as sister schools Further the authors discuss prospects for future educational interactions between Canada and China Reciprocal Learning between Canada and China in Language and Culture Education Shijing Xu, Luxin Yang, Yuhua Deng, Shuai Fu, 2024-11-07 This book engages Canadian and Chinese language educators graduate students pre service teachers school principals and teachers in an enhanced reciprocal learning process by collaboratively reflecting on and writing up the school based language curriculum projects and school based language teachers professional development activities in Canada China sister schools The objective is to develop a knowledge base for generating positive reciprocal practitioner knowledge and methods to improve language teaching effectiveness in either context In this way it contributes to a public discussion of the reciprocal educational impacts on the knowledge based society in Canada and China Reciprocal Learning for Cross-Cultural Mathematics

Education Sijia Cynthia Zhu, Shu Xie, Yunpeng Ma, Douglas McDougall, 2020-12-15 This edited volume examines new ways of teaching mathematics through a cross cultural reciprocal learning project between sister schools in Canada and China Situating teacher learning in the intersection of the two different school systems curriculums and cultures of mathematics learning and teaching in both nations this volume offers teachers a unique and much needed perspective on how practices between countries become more and more likely shaped by each other in the emerging global society Born out of a comparative study project sponsored by the SSHRC this volume compiles five years worth of findings from reciprocal partnerships between researchers teachers school administrators and students from both nations Through the process of reciprocal learning and narrative inquiry the research described in these chapters illuminates the unknown and shares newly created mathematics education knowledge West-East Reciprocal Learning in Teacher Education Shijing Xu, Yibing Liu, Zuochen Zhang, Michael Connelly, Chenkai Chi, 2024-10-21 During this uncertain time teacher education has never been more needed for West East dialogues and Reciprocal Learning Xu and Connelly s concept of reciprocal learning aims to harmonize the West East dichotomy and foster appreciation in education and understanding of each other s culture and history This book focuses on the field work done by the Teacher Education Research Team with chapter contributors from Canadian and Chinese professors graduate students and pre service teachers who have been deeply engaged in the RLP

Following Xu and Connelly's conceptual framework of Reciprocal Learning as Collaborative Partnership the book begins with knowing the Teacher Education RLP followed by doing the West East reciprocal learning through the program. It concludes with a discussion of the envisioned future of the RLP and commentaries from distinguished scholars in teacher education one from the West and the other from the East.

Teacher Education in Professional Learning Communities Xuefeng Huang, 2018-06-20 This book explores the unique experiences of a sister school network in Canada and China contextualized through the lens of the Reciprocal Learning Project which supports the relationship between a school network and teacher education exchange program of two countries. Huang uses theoretical viewpoints from teacher learning and comparative education research to analyse and interpret what has happened in the emerging cross cultural school network. The book juxtaposes teacher learning and comparative education research from Shanghai and Ontario as teachers in the two places interact and provides detailed descriptions of teacher collaboration to show how these collaborations were initiated developed and sustained as well as the impact brought about from these collaborations. The book offers a unique opportunity to examine how Canadian and Chinese teachers receive and react to opportunities of cross cultural collaboration and learning.

International Service Learning Marianne Larsen, 2015-12-14 International service learning ISL programs are growing more popular with students looking to advance their skills and knowledge to become global citizens. While the benefits of these programs among students are well documented little is known about the implications they have on host communities themselves. This volume explores the impact of ISL programs on members of host communities e.g. host families and local partner NGOs who are increasingly influenced by the presence of international students in their lives. Drawing upon post colonial feminist and other critical and decolonizing theories it examines the complicated power relations between North American ISL students and host communities in East and West Africa the Caribbean and Central America. It stresses the importance of developing trusting relations between ISL students faculty and individuals in the host communities to create mutually engaging learning experiences Reciprocity in Population Biobanks Ma'n H. Zawati, 2021-09-22 Reciprocity in Population Biobanks Relational Autonomy and the Duty to Inform in the Genomic Era begins by discussing how current judicial interpretation keeps standard of disclosure at the core of genomic research The book then outlines multiple limitations individualistic autonomy faces in the context of gene and population biobanks including an analysis of the complexities of benefit considerations in the research setting Second the book explores how individualistic autonomy fails to acknowledge the multilateral relationships implicated in genomic research including those that affect the broader research community research participants families and the general public In carrying out this analysis this book pays special attention to alternative approaches and ways researchers public health officials and judicial bodies might interact in years to come In other words implementing an understanding of relational autonomy that acknowledges and sustains the multilateral relationships found in genomic research without compromising the rights of participants In short this book proposes a reconceived duty to inform for researchers and a new standard of disclosure that is more meaningful and impactful for research participants and researchers Examines the limitations individualistic autonomy faces in the context of gene and population biobanks Proposes a reconceived duty to inform for researchers and a new standard of disclosure more meaningful to genomic research participants Suggests ways researchers public health officials and judicial bodies might interact to drive genomic research while still protecting research participants Learning Outcomes, Academic Credit and Student Mobility Christine Arnold, Mary Wilson, Jean Bridge, Mary Catherine Lennon, 2020-10-30 There is increasing interest in the use of learning outcomes in postsecondary education and deliberations have surfaced with regard to their potential to serve as a tool for advancing credit transfer Learning Outcomes Academic Credit and Student Mobility assesses the conceptual foundations assumptions and implications of using learning outcomes for the purposes of postsecondary credit transfer and student mobility Through a critical review of current approaches to the use of learning outcomes across national and international jurisdictions scholars and practitioners in postsecondary education provide a multivalent examination of their potential impacts in the unique context of Ontario and recommend future directions for the system The collected works are the culmination of a multi year study entitled Learning Outcomes for Transfer funded by the Ontario Council on Articulation and Transfer Contributions are authored by prominent international scholars across countries with significant outcomes based experience and education reforms South Africa the United States Australia Europe and the United Kingdom and an Ontario research consortium comprising college and university experts working to advance student pathways

The Top Books of the Year Reciprocal Program Ontario 2014 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Reciprocal Program Ontario 2014 : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Reciprocal Program Ontario 2014 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
