Recovering A Journal:

Recovering May Sarton, 1980 Recovering May Sarton, 2014-12-16 An affecting diary of one year's hardships and healing by one of the twentieth century's most extraordinary memoirists. For decades readers have celebrated May Sarton's journals for their candid look at relationships, success and failure, communion with nature and the curious stages of aging. In Recovering Sarton focuses on her sixty-sixth year, one marked by the turmoil of a mastectomy, the end of a treasured relationship and the loneliness that visits a life of chosen solitude. Each deeply felt entry in the journal, written between 1978 and 1979, is laced with poignancy and honesty as she grapples with a cold reception for her latest novel, the sad descent of a close friend into senility and other struggles. Despite the trials of this one painful year, Sarton writes of her progression toward a hard-won renewal achieved through good friendships, the levity provided by her cherished dog and peaceful days in her garden. A candid account of Sarton's revival from personal darkness back into light, Recovering is another stunning entry in the author's irrepressible oeuvre.

Handbook of Addiction, Recovery and Quality of Life Maria Florence, Wouter Vanderplasschen, Mansoo Yu, Jessica De Maeyer, Shazly Savahl, 2025-01-25 This handbook brings together research and innovation across two important and related fields: quality of life (QoL) and addiction recovery. Though both fields of research are equally vibrant, this volume brings together the advancing scholarly exploration of the intersection between QoL and addiction recovery. It provides comprehensive coverage of the theoretical perspectives on QoL in the field of addiction and recovery, instruments and methodologies to assess QoL, different types of addiction in specific populations, and QoL and practices and interventions for supporting recovery and promoting QoL. It importantly includes international and intercultural perspectives on QoL and addiction recovery. By including sound theoretical, conceptual, historical, empirical, and cross-cultural contributions on QoL and addictions, the volume offers many opportunities for advancing support, treatment, and recovery of persons with addiction problems based on their subjective perspectives and experiences. This handbook is a go-to resource for a wide interdisciplinary readership interested in quality of life research, subjective well-being, public health, and addiction research.

Recovery Monographs Volume II William White, 2015-11-06 The addiction treatment field is reaching a tipping point that is revolutionizing the ways that behavioral health leaders think about people with alcohol and other drug problems and how services and systems are developed. Recovery Management: Recovery Oriented Systems of Care contains six monographs by renowned recovery advocate William L. White and colleagues. These monographs provide insight and analysis of the topics important to today's addiction counselors and recovery coaches: recovery-oriented systems of care, recovery management, peer-based recovery services, and treating addiction as a chronic condition that requires ongoing management.

Recovering Assemblages Aysel Sultan, 2022-08-30 Drawing together insights and provocations from diverse fields of inquiry, this important new book asks probing questions about the lived experience of substance use and misuse, health, and recovery. What if we were to approach these experiences in terms of spaces and events, affects, and relations?

rather than subjects and their settled identities In charting this course the book offers a powerful new social logic of health wellbeing and recovery Cameron Duff Associate Professor RMIT University This is an important book which expands and deepens our understanding of recovery It presents recovery as something made in practice taking multiple forms in specific contexts Drawing on qualitative research with young people in Azerbaijan and Germany Sultan takes the concept of recovery beyond its more familiar and normative iterations and instead introduces the reader to a fascinating field of dynamic and unruly relations Helen Keane Professor in Research School of Social Sciences Australian National University Recovering Assemblages offers an exciting new insight into the policies and practices of recovery and drug use bridging critical drug studies and the sociology of health and illness The book investigates lived experiences of young people in Azerbaijan and Germany during their personal recovery from alcohol and other drug use and shows the contingency of real experiences The sociomaterial and ontological analyses unfold the interrelation of practices spaces bodies and affects in experiencing recovery both within and outside of various treatment facilities The book will appeal to a range of scholars postgraduates and undergraduates engaged in critical methodological and empirical studies of recovery drug use and policy
