Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of prominent science fiction authors written by subject experts

Lorca's Late Poetry Andrew A. Anderson, 1990 Federico Garc a Lorca 1898 1938 is often thought of as a fine lyric poet of the 1920s who then developed into one of Spain s greatest playwrights 1931 36 But other aspects of Lorca s literary career are equally significant the earlier theatrical pieces which he had started writing by 1918 the bold experimental expressionist plays of 1930 31 and the subject of this volume the later poetry written as his powers as a dramatist matured in the 1930s Professor Anderson s book is the first in any language to focus specifically on Lorca s poetic output from 1931 to 1936 It offers extensive detailed analyses of all the poetry composed during that period Div n del Tamarit with its Arab Andalusian flavour and stylization the Llanto por Ignacio S nchez Mej as a sustained lament on the death of a bullfighter friend Seis poemas galegos and Sonetos love poetry echoing Petrarch Shakespeare and G ngora four collections equal or superior in quality power and suggestiveness to Lorca s canonic poetical works Adopting a literary critical approach based on the close reading of individual texts with relevant background information Professor Anderson elaborates on the themes and techniques imagery and symbolism strengths and weaknesses of each poem in the four collections Thereby he can relate this corpus to the whole of Lorca s work showing that it cannot be neatly categorized under any of the avant garde isms prevalent in the 1920s and 1930s His arguments for a revised appraisal of Lorca s creative development lead to a compelling case for a re evaluation of his late poetry An Appendix gives English translations of all the poems under discussion other Spanish quotations are translated in the text and there is a fifteen page bibliography of primary and secondary material The Mammoth Book of Superstition Roy Bainton, 2016-11-10 Rather than providing a dictionary of superstitions of which there are already numerous excellent exhaustive and in many cases academic works which list superstitions from A to Z Bainton gives us an entertaining flight over the terrain landing from time to time in more thought provoking areas He offers an overview of humanity s often illogical and irrational persistence in seeking good luck and avoiding misfortune While Steve Roud s two excellent books The Penguin Dictionary of Superstitions and his Pocket Guide and Philippa Waring s 1970 Dictionary concentrate on the British Isles Bainton casts his net much wider There are many origins which warrant the full back story such as Friday the thirteenth and the Knights Templar or the demonisation of the domestic cat resulting in cat holocausts throughout Europe led by the Popes and the Inquisition The whole is presented as a comprehensive entertaining narrative flow though it is of course a book that could be dipped into and includes a thorough bibliography Schoenberg who developed the twelve tone technique in music was a notorious triskaidekaphobe When the title of his opera Moses und Aaron resulted in a title with thirteen letters he renamed it Moses und Aron He believed he would die in his seventy sixth year 7 6 13 and he was correct he also died on Friday the thirteenth at thirteen minutes before midnight As Sigmund Freud wrote

Superstition is in large part the expectation of trouble and a person who has harboured frequent evil wishes against others but has been brought up to be good and has therefore repressed such wishes into the unconscious will be especially ready to expect punishment for his unconscious wickedness in the form of trouble threatening him from without A Lexical Concordance to the Poetical Works of Percy Bysshe Shelley, 1892 Corpus Inscriptionum et Monumentorum Religionis Mithriacae M.J. Vermaseren, 2012-12-06 The publication of this Corpus Inscriptionum et Monumentorum Religionis Mithriacae is due mainly to the activities of the Koninklijke Vlaamse Academie van Wetenschappen Kunsten en Schone Letteren The Royal Flemish Academy of Arts and Sciences at Brussels for this work was begun as an entry in a competition organized by their Department of Fine Arts and Literature It was then awarded a prize by a committee elected by the Academy and consisting of the theologian Prof J Coppens the orientalist Prof G Rijckmans and the archaeologist the late Prof H van de Weerd Among the first who should be mentioned with respect and gratitude is my teacher Dr F J de Waele Professor in Archaeology and Ancient History at the Nijmegen University and member of the Royal Flemish Academy This remarkable teacher inspired a deep interest in the study of Archaeology and of the Mithras cult and his help has always been invaluable I am also greatly indebted to the renowned Belgian scholar Prof Franz Cumont He was among the first to recognize the necessity of a revision of his standard work Textes et Monuments relatifs aux Mysteres de Mithra During the last few years before his death he showed a lively interest in the present study supplied much material and often gave advice devoting a great part of his leisure and his love of Classical Culture to this new publication of the Mithraic Monuments
