The First City on Mars: An Urban Planner's Guide to Settling the Red Planet Justin B. Hollander, 2023-02-01. Hundreds of novels, films, and TV shows have speculated about what it would be like for us Earthlings to build cities on Mars. To make it a reality, however, these dreamers are in sore need of additional conceptual tools in their belt, particularly a rich knowledge of city planning and design. Enter award-winning author and Tufts University professor Justin Hollander. In this book, he draws on his experience as an urban planner and researcher of human settlements to provide a thoughtful exploration of what a city on Mars might actually look like. Exploring the residential, commercial, industrial, and infrastructure elements of such an outpost, the book is able to paint a vivid picture of how a Martian community would function: the layout of its public spaces, the arrangement of its buildings, its transportation network, and many more crucial aspects of daily life on another planet. Dr. Hollander then brings all these lessons to life through his own rendered plan for Aleph, one of many possible designs for the first city on Mars. Featuring a plethora of detailed, cutting-edge illustrations and blueprints for Martian settlements, this book at once inspires and grounds the adventurous spirit. It is a novel addition to the current planning underway to colonize the Red Planet, providing a rich review of how we have historically overcome challenging environments and what the broader lessons of urban planning can offer to the extraordinary challenge of building a permanent settlement on Mars.

1984 and Philosophy Ezio Di Nucci, Stefan Storrie, 2018-05-18. Although the year 1984 is hurtling back into the distant past, Orwell's novel Nineteen Eighty-Four continues to have a huge readership and to help shape the world of 2084. Sales of Orwell's terrifying tale have recently spiked because of current worries about alternate facts, post-truth, and fake news. 1984 and Philosophy brings together brand new, up-to-the-minute thinking by philosophers about Nineteen Eighty-Four as it relates to today's culture, politics, and everyday life. Some of the thinking amounts to thoughtcrime, but we managed to sneak it past the agents of the Ministry of Truth so this is a book to be read quickly before the words on the page mysteriously transform into something different Who's controlling our lives and are they getting even more levers to control us Is truth objective or just made up What did Orwell get right and did he get some things wrong Are social media opportunities for liberation or instruments of oppression How can we fight back against totalitarian control Can Big Brother compel us to love him How does the language we use affect the way we think Do we really need the unifying power of hate Why did Orwell make Nineteen Eighty Four so desperately hopeless Can science be protected from poisonous ideology Can we really believe two contradictory things at once Who surveils the surveilers

The Man in the High Castle and Philosophy Bruce Krajewski, Joshua Heter, 2017-08-04 The Man in the High Castle is an Amazon TV show based on the Philip K Dick novel about an alternate present beginning in the 1960s in which Germany and Japan won World War II with the former Western US occupied by Japan the former Eastern US occupied by Nazi Germany and a small neutral zone between them A theme of the story is that in this alternative world there is eager speculation fueled by the illicit newsreel The Grasshopper Lies Heavy about how the world would have been different if America had won the war In The Man in the High Castle and Philosophy twenty two professional thinkers look at philosophical issues raised by this ongoing enterprise in alternative history One question is whether it really made a profound difference that the Allies won the war and exactly what differences in everyday life we may expect to arise from an apparent historical turning point Could it be that some dramatic historical events have only superficial consequences while some unnoticed occurrences lead to catastrophic results Another topic is the quest for truth in a world of government misinformation and how dissenting organizations can make headway
