Recipe Kingcake Madi Gras:

Cajun and Creole Cookbook, Mardi Gras, Gumbo, and Zydeco Marcia G. Gaudet, James C. McDonald, 2003 The distinct cultural charm of southern Louisiana has challenged but eluded many authors who have attempted to describe it This anthology of readings reflects on the traditions folklore and folklife in the region and comes perhaps closest of any book yet published in capturing this elusive spirit A strange piquant and savory mixture the culture has been likened to gumbo one of southern Louisiana's signature dishes The delectable one of a kind identity has been expressed in numerous descriptive phrases south of the South the northern tip of the Caribbean this folklore land Crystalizing the region's rich diversity and character the authors in this collection give a precise introduction to aspects that other books have missed Here a land and a people that are unlike any other are portrayed accurately and uniquely Book jacket Cooking Lessons Sherrie A. Inness, 2001 Meatloaf fried chicken Jell O cake because foods are so very common we rarely think about them much in depth The authors of Cooking Lessons however believe that food is deserving of our critical scrutiny and that such analysis yields many important lessons about American society and its values This book explores the relationship between food and gender Contributors draw from diverse sources both contemporary and historical and look at women from various cultural backgrounds including Hispanic traditional southern White and African American Each chapter focuses on a certain food teasing out its cultural meanings and showing its effect on women's identity and lives For example food has often offered women a traditional way to gain power and influence in their households and larger communities For women without access to other forms of creative expression preparing a superior cake or batch of fried chicken was a traditional way to display their talent in an acceptable venue On the other hand foods and the stereotypes attached to them have also been used to keep women and men too from different races ethnicities and social classes in their place Recipe Lynn Z. Bloom, 2022-06-30 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things Recipe reveals the surprising lessons that recipes teach in addition to the obvious instructions on how to prepare a dish or perform a process These include lessons in hospitality friendship community family and ethnic heritage tradition nutrition precision and order invention and improvisation feasting and famine survival and seduction and love A recipe is a signature as individual as the cook's fingerprint a passport to travel the world without leaving the kitchen a lifeline for people in hunger and in want and always a means to expand one's worldview if not waistline Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic Holidays of the World Cookbook for Students Lois Sinaiko Webb, Lindsay Grace Cardella, 2011-04-12 This updated and revised cookbook helps students explore the holiday customs and unique foods of more than 150 countries The best way to learn about other ethnic groups is to experience that culture directly Unfortunately to travel to foreign places isn't often possible Giving students the opportunity to learn about and enjoy ethnic customs and holidays through food is a great solution This new edition of Holidays of the World Cookbook for Students provides detailed information about the holidays of nations around the world and presents a multitude of selected recipes that are ideal for each celebration The recipes appear with each country entry and the countries are arranged in alphabetical order within each region Africa Asia and the South Pacific the Caribbean Europe Latin America the Middle East and North America With recipes especially adapted for preparation by student chefs this cookbook is especially appropriate for students in grades 9 12 who are either researching holiday customs and foods or planning to prepare ethnic meals or dishes Louisiana
