When Chef Frankel opened her first restaurant in 1999 she was driven not only by her love of cooking but also by the desire to prove that kosher food can be as delicious and exciting as any other type of contemporary cuisine. The same goes in her own kitchen. When her family decided to keep kosher they gave up eating pork, shellfish and the combination of meat and dairy, but that didn't mean they wanted to sacrifice flavor. Fresh and top quality ingredients are key to Frankel's cooking at the Wolfgang Puck Kosher Catering and Caf at Chicago's Spertus Institute. So in Jewish Cooking for All Seasons she groups 150 delicious recipes by season, allowing home cooks to create wonderful meals year round from spring's asparagus and goat cheese lasagna and summer's heirloom tomato salad to fall's roasted butternut squash bisque and winter's braised veal shanks with Moroccan spices. Frankel also groups recipes by holidays, providing menus for Passover, Rosh Hashanah, Hanukkah and more. Every recipe has make-ahead information for holiday or Shabbat preparation plus a short introduction that includes tips, serving ideas or information to heighten your guest's appreciation of the dish. Featuring Frankel's signature blend of convenience and globe-spanning flavors, these recipes are designed to be kosher yet accessible to eaters of all backgrounds. Anyone looking for fresh seasonal meals to please family and friends on any occasion will find Jewish Cooking for All Seasons an inspiring resource in the kitchen.

Yucatán David Sterling, 2014-03-30 Winner James Beard Foundation Best Cookbook of the Year Award 2015, James Beard Foundation Best International Cookbook Award 2015, The Art of Eating Prize for Best Food Book of the Year 2015. The Yucatán Peninsula is home to one of the world's great regional cuisines. With a foundation of native Maya dishes made from fresh local ingredients, it shares much of the same pantry of ingredients and many culinary practices with the rest of Mexico. Yet due to its isolated peninsular location, it was also in a unique position to absorb the foods and flavors of such far-flung regions as Spain and Portugal, France, Holland, Lebanon and the Levant, Cuba and the Caribbean and Africa. In recent years, gourmet magazines and celebrity chefs have popularized certain Yucatecan dishes and ingredients such as sopa de lima and achiote, and global gastronomes have made the pilgrimage to Yucatán to tantalize their taste buds with smoky pit barbecues, citrus-based pickles and fiery chiles. But until now, the full depth and richness of this cuisine has remained little understood beyond Yucatán's borders. An internationally recognized authority on Yucatecan cuisine, chef David Sterling takes you on a gastronomic tour of the peninsula in this unique cookbook Yucatán Recipes from a Culinary Expedition Presenting the food in the places where it's savored Sterling begins in jungle towns where Mayas concoct age old recipes with a few simple ingredients they grow themselves He travels over a thousand miles along the broad Yucatán coast to sample a bounty of seafood shares the people's food at bakeries chicharronerías as street vendors home restaurants and cantinas and highlights the cooking of the peninsula's three largest cities Campeche Mérida and Valladolid as well as a variety of pueblos noted for signature dishes Throughout the journey Sterling serves up over 275 authentic thoroughly tested recipes that will appeal to both novice and professional cooks He also discusses pantry staples and basic cooking techniques and offers substitutions for local ingredients that may be hard to find elsewhere Profusely illustrated and spiced with lively stories of the region's people and places Yucatán Recipes from a Culinary Expedition is the long awaited definitive work on this distinctive cuisine Pure Delicious Heather
