The Breath of a Wok Grace Young, Alan Richardson, 2013-06-25 Award winning author Grace Young celebrates and demystifies the art of wok cooking for the Western home cook When Grace Young was a child her father instilled in her a lasting appreciation of wok hay the highly prized but elusive taste that food achieves when properly stir fried in a wok As an adult Young aspired to create that taste in her own kitchen Grace Young's quest to master wok cooking led her throughout the United States Hong Kong and mainland China Along with award winning photographer Alan Richardson Young sought the advice of home cooks professional chefs and esteemed culinary teachers like Cecilia Chiang Florence Lin and Ken Hom Their instructions stories and recipes gathered in this richly designed and illustrated volume offer not only expert lessons in the art of wok cooking but also capture a beautiful and timeless way of life With its emphasis on cooking with all the senses The Breath of a Wok brings the techniques and flavors of old world wok cooking into today's kitchen enabling anyone to stir fry with wok hay IACP award winner Young details the fundamentals of selecting seasoning and caring for a wok as well as the range of the wok's uses this surprisingly inexpensive utensil serves as the ultimate multipurpose kitchen tool The 125 recipes are a testament to the

versatility of the wok with stir fried smoked pan fried braised boiled poached steamed and deep fried dishes that include not only the classics of wok cooking like Kung Pao Chicken and Moo Shoo Pork but also unusual dishes like Sizzling Pepper and Salt Shrimp Three Teacup Chicken and Scallion and Ginger Lo Mein Young's elegant prose and Richardson's extraordinary photographs create a unique and unforgettable picture of artisan wok makers in mainland China street markets in Hong Kong and a wok a thon in which Young's family of aunts uncles and cousins cooks together in a lively exchange of recipes and stories A visit with author Amy Tan also becomes a family event when Tan and her sisters prepare New Year's dumplings Additionally there are menus for family style meals and for Chinese New Year festivities an illustrated glossary and a source guide to purchasing ingredients woks and accessories Written with the intimacy of a memoir and the immediacy of a travelogue this recipe rich volume is a celebration of cultural and culinary delights Chinatown Unbound, Kay Anderson, Jen Ang, Andrea Del Bono, Donald McNeill, Alexandra Wong, 2019-01-25 Chinatowns are familiar places in almost all major cities in the world In popular Western wisdom the restaurants pagodas and red lanterns are intrinsically equated with a self contained immigrant Chinese district an alien enclave of the East in the West By the 1980s when these Western societies had largely given up their racially discriminatory immigration policies and opened up to Asian immigration the dominant conception of Chinatown was no longer that of an abject ethnic ghetto rather Chinatown was now seen as a positive expression of multicultural heritage and difference By the early 21st century however these spatial and cultural constructions of Chinatown as an other space whether negative or positive have been thoroughly destabilised by the impacts of accelerating globalisation and transnational migration This book provides a timely and much needed paradigm shift in this regard through an in depth case study of Sydney's Chinatown It speaks to the growing multilateral connections that link Australia and Asia and especially China together not just economically but also socially and culturally as a consequence of increasing transnational flows of people money ideas and things Further the book elicits a particular sense of a place in Sydney's Chinatown that of an interconnected world in which Western and Asian realms inhabit each other and in which the orientalist legacy is being reconfigured in new deployments and more complex delimitations As such Chinatown Unbound engages with and contributes to making sense of the epochal shift in the global balance of power towards Asia especially China Let's Grandparent JoAn Vaughan, 2008-12-01 With baby boomers swelling the ranks of grandparents there is a large and growing audience for Let's Grandparent There are no other books on the market with the variety of content or perspective presented in this book With its emphasis upon the crucial early years it has special appeal for new grandparents and those with young grandchildren During this honeymoon period grandparents are typically enthusiastic about their new role and eager to learn all they can to make the most of time spent with their grandchildren They want it to be fun have an educational value and strengthen close intimate bonds Let's Grandparent shows them how to achieve these goals through an in depth understanding of child development over four hundred kid tested activities and tips for simple but satisfying experiences together The author brings together her personal experience as an enthusiastic grandparent with her professional career in early childhood education to create this insightful and enjoyable guide The intended audience for this book is grandparents with young grandchildren especially targeted for a well educated middle class audience and grandparents of both men and women in their late middle age and early retirement years Parents of young children who often are looking for ways to encourage closer connections between their children and their grandparents Anyone wishing to form a close relationship with a young child such as other relatives or mentors to young children Participants of workshops and classes for grandparents Early childhood education National Association for the Education of Young Children and Association of Childhood Education International Fashionable Food Sylvia Lovegren, 2005-06 Organized by decade spanning the 1920s to the 1990s this first complete history of gourmet food in America offers an irreverent approach to every food fad of the 20th century from Crepe Suzettes to blue corn chips Recipes menus and illustrations for these creations can be found throughout 40 photos
