The Routledge Handbook of Critical Finance Studies Christian Borch, Robert Wosnitzer, 2020-09-15 There has been an increasing interest in financial markets across sociology history anthropology cultural studies and related disciplines over the past decades with particular intensity since the 2007 2008 crisis which prompted new analyses of the workings of financial markets and how scandals of Wall Street might have huge societal ramifications The sociologically inclined landscape of finance studies is characterized by different more or less well established homogeneous camps with more micro empirical social studies of finance approaches on the one end of the spectrum and more theoretical often neo Marxist approaches on the other Yet alternative approaches are also gaining traction including work that emphasizes the cultural homologies and interconnections with finance as well as work that more broadly is both empirically rigorous and theoretically ambitious Importantly across these various approaches to finance a growing body of literature is taking shape which engages finance in a critical manner The term critical finance studies nonetheless remains largely unfocused and undefined Against this backdrop the key rationales of The Routledge Handbook of Critical Finance Studies are firstly to provide a coherent notion of this emergent field and secondly to demonstrate its analytical usefulness across a wide range of central aspects of contemporary finance As such the volume will offer a comprehensive guide to students and academics on the field of Finance and Critical Finance Studies Heterodox Economics Accounting and related Management disciplines Chapter 14 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Plant-based and Vegan Handbook Yanoula Athanassakis, Renan Larue, William O'Donohue, 2024-09-17 The Plant based and Vegan Handbook is the first of its kind to bring together interlocking and sometimes conflicting perspectives focused on veganism and plant based living As an interdisciplinary volume the noted contributors are from the fields of medicine psychiatry environmental studies sociology marine ecology philosophy agriculture psychology animal studies religion economics literature business and law Despite a range of individual preferences these authors advance a scientific argument for a societal move away from the current model of human and nonhuman animal relationships In our Anthropocene era experts not only debate about how human beings will survive on Earth but more particularly are more concerned with how they will thrive As evidenced by the authors in this collection it will involve a reconsideration of the way our species relates to the planet and to other species This volume can serve as a critical reference work especially for students and scholars working in both emerging and established fields such as psychology medicine animal studies food studies environmental studies philosophy animal ethics and marine ecology

The Delineator R. S. O'Loughlin, H. F. Montgomery, Charles Dwyer, 1910 Gender Research in Natural Resource

Management Malika Abdelali-Martini, Aden Aw-Hassan, 2013-12-17 The aim of this book is to highlight the role that gender research can play in understanding natural resource management and rural development issues in the Middle East and North Africa region and how hands on training and mentoring can be used as a capacity enhancement approach It presents findings of four research teams working in three countries Algeria Lebanon and Morocco The approach was to build the capacity of national teams through hands on field research mentoring and technical support which is different from traditional training The chapters present the results of the case studies used as learning platforms for the teams and reflections on this approach The case studies demonstrate the capacity and skills that the teams have acquired These teams were multi disciplinary and included social scientists as well as specialists in water management livestock production and rangelands and agronomy The book provides grounded empirical examples for MENA academics practitioners and development students concerned about ensuring gender balanced rural development Recovering Our Ancestral

Foodways Mariaelena Huambachano, 2024-08-06 Based on over ten years of fieldwork in Peru and Aotearoa New Zealand Recovering Our Ancestral Foodways explores how Quechua and M ori peoples describe define and enact well being through the lens of foodways By analyzing how these two Indigenous communities operationalize knowledge to promote sustainable food systems physical and spiritual well being and community health Mariaelena Huambachano puts forth a powerful philosophy of food sovereignty called the Chakana M hutonga She argues that this framework offers a foundation for understanding the practices and policies needed to transform the global food system to nourish the world and preserve the Earth One of the key features of this book is the development of the author s original research methodology the Khipu Model which will serve as a vital resource for future research on Indigenous ways of knowing International marketing and trade of quality food products Alessandra Castellini, Erika Pignatti, Roberta Spadoni, Maurizio Canavari, Nicola Cantore, 2023-09-04 Due to increased purchasing power of certain consumer segments all over the world and the related growing demand for food specialties for differentiated goods in the international markets agri food trade and marketing is no longer focused on commodities only Key concepts of Marketing International Trade and Quality are taking the forefront in the scientific debate among agricultural economists dealing with agricultural and food products markets The need for scientific knowledge about several aspects of marketing for quality food products is growing The aim of this book is to link these key concepts together and consider connections overlaps contradictions and complementarities between them This book contains peer reviewed articles covering a range of studies on international marketing and trade for quality food products and is edited with the support of the BEAN QUORUM project funded by the European Union s Asia Link Programme The topics covered by the studies range from geographical indications to organic food from fair trade to functional food from knowledge about quality requirements to the impact of the quest for quality The geographical scope of the studies is broad and the perspectives vary including the consumer the producer and the supply chain side The focal interest of the studies also range from competitiveness to policy to potential demand The book is of interest to researchers and practitioners in international food networks of all types The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Machine Learning Juan Pablo Pardo-Guerra,2025-04

Machine learning renowned for its ability to detect patterns in large datasets has seen a significant increase in applications and complexity since the early 2000s The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Machine Learning offers a state of the art and forward looking overview of the intersection between machine learning and sociology exploring what sociology can gain from machine learning and how it can shed new light on the societal implications of this technology Through its 39 chapters an international group of sociologists address three key questions First what can sociologists yield from using machine learning as a methodological tool This question is examined across various data types including text images and sound with insights into how machine learning and ethnography can be combined Second how is machine learning being used throughout society and what are its consequences The Handbook explores this question by examining the assumptions and infrastructures behind machine learning applications as well as the biases they might perpetuate Themes include art cities expertise financial markets gender race intersectionality law enforcement medicine and the environment covering contexts across the Global South and Global North Third what does machine learning mean for sociological theory and theorizing Chapters examine this question through discussions on agency culture human machine interaction influence meaning power dynamics prediction and postcolonial perspectives The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Machine Learning is an essential resource for academics and students interested in artificial intelligence computational social science and the role and implications of machine learning in society Chain Management in Agribusiness and the Food Industry J.H. Recipe Traditional Borch: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Recipe Traditional Borch : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
