RE: Brittany MacLeod for Chief Funster

Dear Mr. Gray:

I heartily endorse Brittany MacLeod for Chief Funster. She is clearly the best person in the world for this job. I have known Brittany for many years and had the pleasure of working with her on the Franklin School Committee when I was the Chairman and she was the Student Representative. She was a student leader who certainly brought the element of fun to the meetings. She was (and continues to be) a great ambassador for our school system and I am delighted to see that she is now bringing her talent to the world stage.

I have followed her campaign from the beginning and have enjoyed her posts, videos, and tweets. They demonstrate clear commitment and drive, traits that we saw early on in Massachusetts. She would be a true asset and great advocate for your organization. I urge you to bring her to Australia to see in person her energy, enthusiasm, and dedication. We would certainly give her a big send-off from the State House in Massachusetts! Please let me know if I can provide you with any additional information.

Very truly yours,

Jeffrey N. Roy

No Regrets Christy Mahler Mills, 2010-02-22 When Samantha Manning her two sisters and her parents move from West Virginia to Pensacola Florida they feel like they have landed in paradise As she begins to settle into her life she quickly discovers that life in Florida is so much more exciting and confusing than her old life And then the worst thing ever happens her father has a stroke and dies the week after her thirteenth birthday Her hopes and dreams begin to vanish as she makes one bad decision after another She must find a way to pick up the pieces of her life as her very existence crumbles beneath her Will she be able to emerge from the ashes and find a better life Sam realizes that the exciting future that she once longed for is far from reality because she made decisions that have brought heartache and pain to her family and friends After years of catastrophes including unwanted pregnancies and untimely death she finds hope with the one person she initially hesitated to trust Ty But is it too late to start over and get back the life that she so desperately wants

Wonder Women Debora L. Spar, 2013-09-17 Fifty years after the Equal Pay Act why are women still living in a man's world Debora L Spar never thought of herself as a feminist Raised after the tumult of the 1960s she presumed the gender war was over As one of the youngest female professors to be tenured at Harvard Business School and a mother of three she swore to young women that they could have it all We thought we could just glide into the new era of equality with babies board seats and husbands in tow she writes We were wrong Now she is the president of Barnard College arguably the most important all women's college in the United States And in Wonder Women Sex Power and the Quest for Perfection a fresh wise original book she asks why a half century after the publication of Betty Friedan's The Feminine Mystique do women still feel stuck In this groundbreaking and compulsively readable book Spar explores how American women's lives have and have not changed over the past fifty years Armed with reams of new research she details how women struggled for power and instead got stuck in an endless quest for perfection The challenges confronting women are more complex than ever and they are challenges that come inherently and inevitably from being female Spar is acutely aware that it's time to change course Both deeply personal and statistically rich Wonder Women is Spar's story and the story of our culture It is cultural history at its best and a road map for the future
