

Reconstruction DBQ

The Reconstruction was a period of roughly ten years that came after the American Civil War. During this time black Americans were able to vote, attend school and even hold public office. These ten years were a small break for black Americans following the end of slavery and preceding the Jim Crow Laws of the South. There is a question to be answered, who killed Reconstruction? There are those who say that the South led to the end of Reconstruction because of the actions of hate groups such as the Ku Klux Klan. However, the most important cause of the end of Reconstruction were the actions of the North because of lingering racism and a lack of caring by Northerners.

There is one way of thinking that is of the belief that the South caused the end of the Reconstruction, this is due to groups such as the Ku Klux Klan and its actions. In the South there were multiple groups of people who were "at odds" with the Klan. These included freed slaves, Carpetbaggers which is a term for Northerners who came south for the Reconstruction, and Scalawags who are southerners who supported the reconstruction. There were numerous cases of the Klan inflicting harm upon members of these groups. For example, in Document A there is a letter written by a Northerner...show more content...

The Reconstruction and its end is an important time period in American history. This period of time was important to black culture in the United States and led to the development of black churches and black universities. The ending of the Reconstruction in 1877 also marks the beginning of a period of history that will last almost one hundred years. Following Reconstruction are the Jim Crow Laws that are passed in the South that will lead to American Civil Rights Leaders and the Civil Rights
