Poster

Teach THIS

The poster is titled "Recount Writing Structure" in a red banner at the top. Below the title, a string of six cards is hanging, each representing a part of the structure: "When" (purple card with a sun and mountains), "Who" (pink card with two children), "Where" (orange card with a zoo sign and trees), "What" (yellow card with a koala and ice cream), "Why" (green card with a sun), and "Feelings" (blue card with a girl). A small "Teach THIS" logo is in the top right corner of the poster. Below the cards, a sample paragraph is written on a white background with yellow and green highlights:

On Sunday morning, my older brother and I went to Australia Zoo. We saw some fluffy koalas and even got to hold them. Then we ate some ice-cream because it was a really hot day. I was so happy to see all my favourite animals.

The Books of Joel and Amos with Introduction and Notes ,1897 Teaching Phonemic Awareness through Children's Literature and Experiences Nancy A. Jurenka,2005-07-30 Teaching phonemic awareness can be boring and repetitive in the hands of a teacher who wishes to just use a workbook approach This delightful book packs loads of fun into 75 lesson plans providing educators with myriad creative strategies for integrating word study with children s picture books Each lesson includes a read aloud book description literacy experience activity direct instruction follow up activities recommended poem and related reading The lessons build skills in phonemic awareness morphemic analysis letter identification rhyming and sight words through singing dancing games art activities cooking and interesting experiences as well as a wealth of humorous picture books The early childhood teacher who is committed to making literacy development meaningful and as much fun as possible will enjoy the wealth of valuable material here Grades K 2 , The books of Joel and Amos with intr. and notes by S.R. Driver Prophets (Minor),1897 How Children Learn to Write Dorothy Latham,2002-07-25 This book is a useful addition to any staff library What makes it different to many other similar books is that it shows teachers that speaking listening and reading create the foundations for writing Tested in schools staff said It is a very useful framework for action research based upon secure theory When deciding classroom strategies it is easy to find what you are looking for and the chapter summaries are very helpful Some of the staff development and training suggestions are very practical and we are trying them out We found the emphasis upon class novels and the class discussion that follows very important especially when linked to the excellent examples of children s writing This book may appear to some as theoretical and academic but this is why it will be valuable It does what the title says because it shows how children learn to write It starts at the beginning and saves diving into the latest trend Perhaps its best recommendation is that every school that was asked to look at it said It s good and we have ordered a copy John Lilly independent education consultant The chapter on the Taxonomy of Writing Purposes will be useful for planning and those on extending and enhancing writing will definitely be helpful in many day to day situations Nicholas Bielby Times Educational Supplement This book outlines the processes which are involved when children learn to write The author shows how certain strategies can improve children s progress in writing Dealing with the age range three to 13 the book addresses issues to do with the gender gap children with English as an additional language left handedness Dorothy Latham includes ideas for sound and easy ongoing assessment of writing The book is written in line with the requirements of the English National Curriculum and The National Literacy Strategy Framework for England but is not limited to them Topics also covered include brain development and structures the acquisition of speech language and thinking working memory secretarial skills stages in compositional development writing purposes and cross curricular applications strategies for improving self generated writing using reading to improve writing using speech and drama to improve writing and ten ways to improve children s writing This book is for serving teachers in schools wishing to study the subject in further depth and as a source book for students Useful for school based staff INSET it provides simple activities for teachers to do and discuss

Spelling K-8 Diane Snowball,Faye Bolton,1999 Spelling K 8 meets the needs of schools and districts that want to put systematic teaching in place without compromising the principles of constructivist learning Recognizing the professional expertise of classroom teachers the authors consistently urge teachers to consider the suggested plan in relation to their children s spelling needs Children are actively engaged in spelling explorations being guided by their teachers forming generalizations that reflect their current understanding about how written English works Specific suggestions are also offered for children whose first language is not English Spelling K 8 addresses the issues that administrators and parents are concerned about especially phonics and learning high frequency words and offers teachers a wealth of strategies and resources to draw on Spelling K 8 assists teachers in understanding current beliefs about teaching and learning and means of translating these into classroom practice implementing specific types of spelling investigations such as sounds spelling patterns or suffixes by clearly outlining the general process involved in spelling explorations identifying the possible spelling focuses for children in each grade level taking into consideration their needs and the explorations they have been introduced to in previous years relating the teaching of spelling to reading and writing experiences in a variety of curriculum areas knowing the generalizations children need to learn to enable them to understand how written English works Spelling K 8 will help you plan the teaching of spelling at a whole school level and at each grade level
