Recruitment Centre Sa Police Service Cape Town:

Community Policing in Action Peter Stevens, Dianna M. Yach, 1995 Provides practical guidance on the possibilities and barriers to effective implementation of community policing An essential ingredient for success is through consultation in which police are one of the key elements in ensuring community safety in a democratic society Local Economic and Employment Development (LEED) Organising Local Economic Development The Role of Development Agencies and Companies Clark Greg, Huxley Joe, Mountford Debra, 2010-04-06 This book identifies how development agencies and companies work what they do and how they can collaborate and what constitutes success and value added in their efforts to achieve local economic development Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauermaier, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations Maatskaplike en Nijwerheidsblad, 1926

Hitmen for Hire Mark Shaw, 2017-07-10 Hitmen for Hire takes the reader on a journey like no other navigating a world of paid hitmen informers rogue policemen criminal taxi bosses gang leaders and crooked politicians and businessmen Criminologist Mark Shaw examines a society in which contract killings have become commonplace looking at who arranges hits where to find a hitman and even what it is like to operate as a hitman or woman Since 1994 South Africa has seen a worrying increase in the commercialisation of murder and has been rocked by several high profile contract killings Drawing on his research of over a thousand incidents of hired assassinations from 2000 to 2016 Shaw reveals how these murders are used to exert a mafia type control over the country's legal and illegal economic activity Contracted assassinations and the organised criminal activity behind them contain sinister linkages with the underworld most visibly in relation to disputes over tenders and access to government resources State security actors increasingly mediate relations between the under and upper worlds with serious implications for the long term success of the post apartheid democratic project

Sexual and Reproductive Justice Jabulile Mary-Jane Jace Mavuso, Tracy Morison, 2022-03-28 Sexual and Reproductive Justice From the Margins to the Centre offers new insights and perspectives on sexual and reproductive justice The thought provoking and diverse contributions in this volume which range from indigenous approaches to sexual violence to gender affirming primary and mental healthcare extend sexual and reproductive justice scholarship and spark critical questions novel thinking and ongoing dialogue in this field

After Freedom Katherine S. Newman, Ariane De Lannoy, 2015-03-24 Twenty years after the end of apartheid a new generation is building a multiracial democracy in South Africa but remains mired in economic inequality and political conflict The death of Nelson Mandela in 2013 arrived just short of the twentieth anniversary of South Africa's first free election reminding the world of the promise he represented as the nation's first Black president Despite significant progress since the early days of this new democracy frustration is growing as inequalities that once divided the races now grow within them as well In After Freedom award winning sociologist Katherine S Newman and South African expert Ariane De Lannoy bring alive the voices of the freedom generation who came of age after the end of apartheid Through the stories of seven ordinary individuals who will inherit the richest and yet most unequal country in Africa Newman and De Lannoy explore how young South Africans whether Black White mixed race or immigrant confront the lingering consequences of racial oppression These intimate portraits illuminate the erosion of old loyalties the eruption of class divides and the heated debate over policies designed to redress the evils of apartheid Even so the freedom generation remains committed to a united South Africa and is struggling to find its way toward that vision

Politics South Africa Heather Deegan, 2014-05-22 South Africa's democratic transformation in 1994 captured the attention of the international community Politics South Africa provides an acute appraisal of the critical moments in the history of South Africa and examines the political environment in the years following the shift to democracy Under the leadership of the revered figure of Nelson Mandela the rainbow nation achieved the transition with less violence than had been feared A new generation of post Apartheid young people has grown up and the socio political environment is maturing However the country still has immense challenges to overcome in delivering services to its diverse populations faced with the impact of HIV AIDS on communities and the economic demands of development This fully revised second edition includes two entirely new chapters based on the author s recent research and interviews within the country dealing with the legacy of the President Mbeki years the implications of the 2009 election and the challenges now facing the country under Jacob Zuma

Politics South Africa is an accessible guide for students and a fascinating appraisal of a nation which has travelled a long journey but is still trying to reconcile its past Features include boxed discussions of key subject areas chronology of important events maps appendices of critical documents and speeches Dr Heather Deegan is a Reader in Comparative Politics at Middlesex University London She was a Fellow of the Africa Institute of South Africa Pretoria and was a Visiting Lecturer at the University of Witwatersrand She is the author of six books including the recently published Africa Today Culture Economics Religion Security 2009 South Africa Great Britain. Colonial Office. South African Lands Settlement Commission,1901 United Services and Empire Review ,1925 Police Work and Identity Andrew Faull,2017-09-07

This is a book about the men and women who police contemporary South Africa Drawing on rich original ethnographical data it considers how officers make sense of their jobs and how they find meaning in their duties It demonstrates that the dynamics that lead to police abuses and scandals in transitional and neo liberalising regimes such as South Africa can be traced to the day to day experiences and ambitions of the average police officer It is about the stories they tell themselves about themselves and their social worlds and how these shape the order they produce through their work By focusing on police officers this book positions the individual in primacy over the organisation asking what policing looks like when motivated by the pursuit of ontological security in precarious contexts It acknowledges but downplays the importance of police culture in determining officers attitudes and behaviour and reminds readers that most officers lives are entangled in and shaped by a range of social political and cultural forces It suggests that a job in the South African Police Service SAPS is primarily just that a job Most officers join the organisation after other dreams have slipped beyond reach their presence in the Service being almost accidental But once employed they re write their self narratives and enact carefully choreographed performances to ease managerial and public pressure and to rationalize their coercive practices In an era where evidence and what works reigns supreme and where cop culture is often deemed a primary socializing force this book emphasises how officers personal histories ambitions and vulnerabilities remain central to how policing unfolds on the street South African Republic Great Britain. Colonial Office,1896 Plural Policing Trevor Jones,Tim Newburn,2006-04-18 Policing is changing rapidly and radically An increasingly complex array of public private and municipal bodies as well as public police forces are engaged in the provision of regulation and security Consequently it is difficult to think of security provision primarily in terms of what the public police do and so the terminology of fragmented or plural policing systems has become well established within criminology and police science Plural policing is now a central issue within criminology and police studies throughout the world and there is now a large and growing body of research and theory concerned with its extent nature and governance To date however this work has been dominated by Anglo American perspectives This volume takes a detailed comparative look at the development of plural policing and provides the most up to date work of reference for scholars in this field Edited by two of the world s leading authorities on policing and including individual contributions from internationally recognised experts in criminology and police studies this is the first ever volume to focus on plural policing internationally and to draw together empirical evidence on its developments in a formal comparative framework

Cape of Good Hope (South Africa),1906 How South Africa Works Jeffrey Herbst,Greg Mills,2015-07-01 The overwhelming challenge that South Africa faces and has to date failed to address is unemployment which falls especially on African youths who were promised a better future after 1994 If the current unemployment challenge is not addressed it will be impossible to sustainably lift many millions of people out of poverty How South Africa Works reviews the country s major economic achievements over the past two decades Through numerous interviews with politicians business leaders and analysts it examines the challenges and opportunities across key productive sectors including agriculture manufacturing services and mining illustrative of the policy challenges that leaders face It scrutinises the social grant and education systems to understand if South Africa has established mechanisms for people not only to escape destitution but be ready to be employed and identifies steps that some of South Africa s most notable entrepreneurs have taken to build world class enterprises Recognising the essential challenge to cultivate more employers to employ people How South Africa Works concludes by offering an agenda and active steps for greater competitiveness for government business and labour Correspondence
